President's Message

As I sit here contemplating the end of 2005 & the beginning of 2006, many thoughts have come to mind. I've just finish reading a historical novel about Germany starting in 782 during Charlemagne's time. The book, "The Saxon Chronicle Volume 1: The Capitalists", written by Jane Ellen Swan tells the story of early Saxony as Charlemagne makes his appearance in Saxony. The book is a lighter weight Michener type of book that follows a couple of families through 800 years. I have been looking for a historical novel that teaches me about the history of Germany in a lighter weight fashion. I am not really into reading a stiff history book, much rather have a little sizzle thrown into it! I read about the Black Death, the Inquisition, & the Reformation!! I learned how the merchants were a very strong, up and coming members of society, many times making the royalty look poor! The story took 2 families through 800 years, set in what is now Niedersachsen. This has brought a new light on my German ancestors that I am more eager to find out about them! During this time of shorter winter days I've also been reading obituaries, many of current day people who have passed on. It's most interesting to read what families write about their loved ones that have passed on. I wonder if they have any idea that somewhere down the road, 10, 20 or 50 years some genealogist will be reading these obituaries hoping to glean some family history information. As I have read some, I can't even figure out when they were born or how they died! Some of pictures are of a young person taken 40 years prior! There probably isn't anyone alive who recognizes that person! I might know more people in the obits if there was a current picture of them! Very interesting tidbit on our society.

I am also reminded of a friend of the family whose father just died. His remains were to be cremated & sent to Hawaii to be interned there. The father made the arraignments with the funeral home since he didn't really trust his daughter to follow through with them. I find it very sad that there was no obituary written or no tombstone to say that this man ever lived! Very sad tribute for a man who has a story that should have been told....

As genealogist we don't even have to know the man to know that this is a very sad bit of family history. Let's not let this happen to our families, even if we are the end of the line.

From Kerry McHugh Upton, a newspaper article about her father's grandmother:

Alice Burns Hogan

The Courier Herald March 3, 1949

WOMAN LIVING IN HOUSE SHE HELPED BUILD 55 YEARS AGO

by Fred K. Ross

They must have built better houses 55 years ago.

How else can you explain the fact that Mrs. Alice Hogan has been living in the same house, a few miles west of Enumclaw, for 55 years and it hasn't come tumbling down about her ears?

The alert 81-year old woman, who lived there alone until a heart attack a few weeks ago, must hold some kind of a record for living over a half century in the same dwelling. There's quite a history attached to the old house and to the old Irish woman who has lived there so long.

Born In Ireland

She was born in Ireland on November 21, 1867, and her parents emigrated to Maryland when she was three years old. In 1881 they moved to Tacoma, when the stumps still were being removed from Pacific Avenue. She married John Hogan in 1886 and they moved to the homestead west of town in 1894.

Travelling from Tacoma to Enumclaw was a real chore in those days. The Hogans rode on a coal train from Tacoma to Wilkeson, then took a wagon to the end of the wagon trail, and broke their own trail the rest of the way to a sort of trapper's shack which already was erected on their 40-acre homestead.

Mrs. Hogan worked side by side with her husband as they cleared the land and erected the first couple of rooms of their home. In those days Enumclaw was a tiny village consisting of a livery stable, meat market, grocery and three small shacks.

Had Six Children

As the young Hogans started arriving, additions were made to the house. Eventually they had four sons and two daughters, and the house grew to it's present eight rooms. Then the children started marrying and moving away, her husband died, and for the last five years Mrs. Hogan has lived there alone with her memories.

She was never sick a day of her life, except for an occasional cold until the heart attack. Since then a daughter has been staying with her during the daytime and a neighbor at night.

Asked what hardships of the past 81 years stand out particularly in her memory, the old Irish woman was silent for a moment then replied:

"Hardships? I don't recall many hardships. Of course, there were lots of bears and cougars in the forest in the early days. I guess the only real hardship I ever suffered was cranking that Model T Ford we used to have."

Queried about her outlook as she reflects back on a full life, Mrs. Hogan summed it up in these words:

"I know that this old house I have been living in for 55 years is going to fall apart before long, and I know, too, that this house I have been occupying for 81 years is going to crumble. But I have faith that a better house is built and waiting for me when I leave this world."

Courier Herald, Thursday August 28, 1952

Obituary for Mrs. Alice Hogan

Mrs. Alice Hogan passed away on August 23 at the age of 84. A pioneer of this community for 60 years, she was born in Ireland and moved to this country at an early age and has lived in this state for 70 years. She is survived by three sons, John F. Hogan of Chicago, William M. Hogan of Seattle, Edward T. Hogan of Portland, Oregon, and one daughter, Mrs. Ethel Peterson of Enumclaw, and ten grandchildren. Requiem Mass was solemnized at Sacred Heart Church by Rev. Father Farrelly with burial at the Holy Cross Cemetery. The Courier Herald March 3, 1949

Kerry's grandmother, Alice Hogan's daughter, was already deceased by this time, so she is not mentioned in the obituary.

OLYMPIA GENEALOGY SOCIETY "WSGS CONFERENCE", P.O. BOX 1313, OLYMPIA, WA 98507

Olympia has much to offer genealogical researchers. OGS member and State Library staffmember Heather Muller will have the State Library in Tumwater open especially for Conference attendees, to 7:30 PM Friday 7 April. State Vital Records, one block away, can supply many (not all) birth, death, divorce, etc records "in 30 minutes or less." The Washington State Archives SW branch will be ready for your specific or general questions, with a smile. Visit with your state senator or representative? Call ahead first: 1-360-753-5000. OGS member Lee James has negotiated special "WSGS Conference" rates for approximately 100 hotel or motel rooms. Or- stroll the waterfront, enjoy the boats and the Olympics.

Expanded information will be available in late January.

2006 WSGS Conference Speakers

Stephen Aberle BS

Stephen Aberle has been an active genealogist since the 1960's. He is the past Director of Education for the Seattle Genealogical Society. Stephen has researched in England annually since 1998, covering 13 counties (so far). He is also a contributor of English research articles to NEHGS and to two family associations. Stephen has made presentations to several genealogical societies in Western Washington and in 2000 was a co-organizer of a family association conference at Henry Cogswell College.

Terence S Badger CA

Terry Badger works at the Washington State Archives and is responsible for acquisitions from the State Records Center and state agencies. He has worked with the Records Management Section and state employees to ensure the smooth transfer of historical records to the Archives. Terry's other duties include processing, appraisal, outreach, research, and holdings management.

Stephen Eric Baylor BA, MEd

Stephen Baylor is the current President of the Washington State Genealogical Society. In WSGS he also has served as region representative and was the past President of the Stillaguamish Valley Genealogical Society. Steve spearheaded the creation of the first WSGS Speaker List & State Conference Guidelines, and the list of WA State Family History Centers. Steve is a retired school teacher from the Arlington School District.

Margie Beldin BA

Margie Beldin is a past President, VP/Program Chair and Education Chair of the Tri-City Genealogical Society. She holds a bachelor's degree in French and Linguistics as well as a California State teaching certificate and has taught pre-school through adult education classes for years. She has been actively researching her family for 13 years and has attended numerous genealogical conferences including NGS, BYU Family History Conferences, and the Family History Training Program in Provo, Utah.

Godfrey J Ellis PhD

Godfrey Ellis earned his PhD in Social and Family Psychology at WSU. Currently Director of the masters in Counseling Psychology at St. Martin's University, Dr. Ellis has been tracing his English family roots, off and on, since adolescence. Godfrey and his wife, Merry, pursue family history in England every other year. Most recently, he has been lecturing on family history on cruise ships in the Caribbean, Hawaii, and to Alaska. Godfrey has privately published several books on his English family history.

Jessica Hacken BA

Jessica Hacken is a member of the South King County Genealogical Society and received two BAs from Brigham Young University. Her first degree was in French and the other in Family History where she received the Alice W. Rice scholarship for family history. Jessica served as an intern in the LDS Family History Library in Salt Lake City and is now a member of the Association of Professional Genealogists and numerous family history organizations such as the Scottish Genealogy Society. Her areas of interests include Canada, Scotland, England, U.S., Ireland, France, Germany, and Jamaica.

Jerry Handfield

Jerry Handfield has been the Archivist for the State of Washington since 2001. He arrived from Indiana where he served in a similar position since 1987 and the Director of the Commission on Public Records. Jerry was a leader in the placement of state archives records on the web as early as 1994. Here in Washington State he's led a similar reformation by shifting the preservation and presentation of local and state records towards Digital Archives. Jerry is a frequent guest contributor to newsletters and is often speaking on the history, records management, and the changing role of archive collections within state government. Among his other talents Jerry was on a national championship slow-pitch softball team in 1999 and 2001.

Barbara Clark Hovorka

Barbara Hovorka has been interested in family history her entire life. She was drawn by the tales and adventures of her great-grandparents who homesteaded in Eastern Washington in 1872. As a long-time military wife, Barbara has lived all over the world. She returned to Oregon in 1972 where she began her family history in earnest. She is a frequent speaker in the Portland Metro area and is a graduate of a Professional Genealogical Certification program at Brigham Young University. Her areas of interest are Mayflower descendants, Jamestown, England, and English Immigration.

John M Kitzmiller II AG, FSG, FRSAI, FSA (Scot)

John M Kitzmiller II is one of the premier British genealogists in North America. Author, Lecturer, Instructor, and Researcher in English, Scottish, Welsh, Manx, and Ulster family history topics around the world. He was elected a Fellow of The Society of Genealogists in England for his contributions - one of eight North Americans to be so honored.

John is the Operations Director of ProGenealogists.com, the co-founder of Native Records Preservation; and the Chairman & founder of The British Heritage Forum. He worked for 15 years for the Family History Department as a Product Manager, Operations Manager (Ancestral File), Chairman of the Lines of Business Committee, and supervised the design of record-linkage technology application to genealogical databases - including the creation of the search engine for TempleReady.

Focusing on British research, John has published eight books dealing with different research aspects of the above countries. He has also done advanced field research in each of the countries he lectures about. John was also a research consultant for Burke's Peerage (London) and Universal Genealogy, Salt Lake City. He was even mentioned in Who's Who in Genealogy & Heraldry, by Filby 1990.

John LaMont BA, MLS

John LaMont has pursued genealogy for the past 13 years and has been a genealogy librarian at the Seattle Public Library since graduating from the University of Washington in May 2004. He teaches "Genealogy: Databases & the Internet" classes, which cover Ancestry Library Edition, Heritage Quest, and other Internet resources at The Seattle Public Library. He has a Bachelor's in Computer Science and a Master's in Library and Information Science.

Jerri Thorpe McCoy BA

Jerri McCoy has been active in genealogy for over 30 years. She is a past president of the Grant County and Olympia Genealogical Societies and serves WSGS as its Webmaster. Jerri has had numerous roles in the Sacajawea Chapter DAR, been the State Treasurer and Historian for the WA State DAR, and is a member of numerous lineage societies. She has published one family genealogy and is working on her second book. In 2005 Jerri completed research on a missing link in her Mayflower lineage, which will soon be published in the Mayflower Society's national journal.

Steven Waltz Morrison BS, MPA

Steven Morrison is the past President of the Olympia Genealogical Society, has chaired three OGS seminars, and this year is the Speakers Chair for the 2006 WSGS Conference. Since 1992 family history has been Steve's second profession. In 1998 he privately published "Glad Our Paths Crossed" the remembrances of his grandmother WALTZ which was part of a millennium time capsule. Steve is a frequent speaker at his local society and was an adjunct faculty at The Evergreen State College for several years. Last year he attended IGHR program on Irish Research at Samford University. Steve's areas of interest are Western Outlaws, Oregon Trail, Ireland and Quaker research.

Heather Muller BA, MLS

Heather Muller is a History/Genealogy Reference Librarian with the Washington State Library and assists the public with Washington genealogy and history resources.

Terri Nelson BA

Terri Nelson was born and raised in the Tacoma-Olympia area and has an extensive background in social services. Her second career has been in the historical records field where she worked with the Southwest Regional Branch of the Washington State Archives for seven years as a Preservation Specialist and a multi-media coordinator conducting numerous oral and video histories. Terri has recently switched gears to work as the coordinator for the Secretary of State's - Historical Records Project which allows people to search for the Washington ancestors on-line in a searchable database.

Lynn Red BA, MLS

Lynn Red is a History/Genealogy Reference Librarian with the Washington State Library and assists the public with Washington genealogy and history resources.

Marlys Rudeen BA, MLS

Marlys Rudeen is the Deputy State Librarian and in charge of Digital Services at the Washington State Library. A Spokane native, she recently returned to Washington after many years in Chicago. In the last several years she has been instrumental in developing digital collections using the State Library's rich historical resources. Books, maps and newspapers that once could only be viewed in Olympia are now available to students, teachers and citizens across the state.

Patricia Salsbury

Patricia Salsbury is a professional genealogist and member of the Tri-Cities Genealogical Society. She has over 25 years of experience researching family histories. Patty is the past Educational Director for Tri-Cities Genealogical Society, Family History Center staff member and instructor. Lori Thornton is the Public Services Program Manager with the Washington State Library.

Lanny Weaver BA, MA

Lanny Weaver has been the Assistant Southwest Regional Archivist since 1996. Both her degrees are in history, but her Masters includes a specialization in Archives and Museum Management. Lanny is a native of Buffalo, New York but has lived in nine states and three foreign countries with her retired Air Force colonel husband Tom and son Paul. Her outside interests are diverse and include her lifelong hobby of genealogy.

Gary A Zimmerman PhD

Gary Zimmerman is the President of the Fiske Genealogical Foundation and Library in Seattle, WA. As a retired academic administrator with a career at Seattle University and Antioch University Seattle, Gary has been teaching others how to do genealogy since the 1960's. His primary focus has been on American and European lineages. From his research base at the Fiske Library and as Historian for the Pioneer Association of Washington, Gary speaks on a wide range of topics to local genealogy societies in Washington State. He believes that genealogical research requires an understanding of the history contemporary with the ancestor you are following.

A bit of humor, contributed by Lee James:

The Smith family was proud of their family tradition. Their ancestors had come to America on the Mayflower. Their line had included senators, pastors, and Wall Street wizards.

They decided to compile a family history, a legacy for the children. They hired a fine author. Only one problem arose: how to handle that great-uncle who was executed in the electric chair. But the author said not to worry, he could handle that section of history tactfully.

When the book appeared, the family turned to the section on Uncle George. There, they read, "George Smith occupied a chair of applied electronics at an important government institution, was attached to his position by the strongest of ties. His death came as a real shock."

EXCHANGE NOTES
by
Jean Laws & Pat Philippsen

The publications mentioned are sent to our society in exchange for our Quarterly which is sent to them. They are filed alphabetically by state and county in the vertical files in the genealogical section of the Olympia Library. Some of them are eventually bound and placed with the bound periodicals in the genealogical section or in storage at the Montesano Library but can be ordered at the reference desk to be sent to your library for your use.

OREGON NEWSPAPERS, COUNTY CENSUS	Willamette valley G. S. Mar 2005 Anyone researching in Ore will find 1849 this issue especially useful. An article on Early Marion Co Newspapers and where they can be found may give you ideas on locating newspapers from other areas in Or. Also, the complete 1849 Governor's census for Champoege Co is listed. This Co. became Marion in 1850.
1894 SHIP STORY; DNA	Family Tree Searcher Grays Harbor G. S. Sep/Oct 2005 A poignant story of Emily Carr who emigrated to N Dak in 1894 from Liverpool and conditions on the ship. DNA Book Report suggests 2 books to read— 7 Daughter of Eve by Bryan Sykes and Journey of Man by Spencer Wills. Also just for fun, the Genesis Code by John Case, a fiction mystery featuring DNA.
BATTLE OF TRAFALGAR	Muskingum Co Oh Oct/Nov 2005 The President's message is timely and thought provoking. She discusses honesty, respect and relationships in conjunction with the kind of society in which we'd like to live. Plus if you have ancestors who fought in the Battle of Trafalgar 1805, the National Archives of Britain now has a data base of men who served . www.nationalarchives.gov.uk/trafalgarancestors .
WHY JOIN SOCIETY	Yakima Co G S Sep 2005 One good reason to join a local genealogical Society you will find people who will listen to your gene stories, give you ideas and help with roadblocks.
ELLENSBURG LIBRARY	Kittitas G S Oct 2005 The society has a large genealogical library in Ellensburg you might consider visiting if you are there for any reason. There are 4 pages in this issue listing their holdings.
