Editorial

As you all know, this is my final issue as editor and I would like to thank all of you who have been encouraging, submitted material, and read the issues for the past several years. I have enjoyed the e-mails and notes particularly. My greatest thanks goes to my Assistant Editor, Jean Laws, who has been an invaluable asset and to Jerri McCoy, the former editor, who was always there to provide help when I needed it.

Jean and I received a poignant but obvious reminder of our duties as genealogists to have our material published and organized so others can easily follow our work. We recently visited the home of our former member B.J. Moe to obtain her pedigree chart (she never had it published because like so many of us, she was going to get more information) to print in the Quarterly. Although she had dozens of well-organized notebooks with incredible documentation, we couldn't find the one that was the key. The experience left us feeling extremely sad because there was so much material there and BJ always was willing to assist other researchers.

I wish every success to the next editor and know you will all provide her with as much help as you have me. Thank you.

Alma Greenwood

Vice-President's Message

What would you like to learn? What would excite you, challenge you to do research in a previously overlooked source? How would you do the research and not waste your valuable time looking at "time-wasters"? We have programs relating to the pilgrims, doing library research, and Olympia history this year. Programs are a list of speakers which may or may not involve activities which can be participated in. For example, a possible session where each member gets to share a recent break through with others may instigate looking in a neglected area. This year's programs will focus on genealogy (but based on the input of only six program committee members) so your input would be invaluable for possible presentations for next year. The programs must involve a subject that interests you and will maintain your interest throughout the various stages of research--possibly hitting GOLD! You should become thoroughly acquainted with the libraries, archives, and local sources to which you have access as the information contained within may lead you to an answer to your question. TO MAKE OUR PROGRAMS INTERESTING, WE NEED YOUR INPUT!

Merrilyn McCourt

Thank You!

In the last issue I asked for a volunteer to transcribe a very lengthy handwritten journal and was very pleased that member Marie Constantineau picked up the material and is hard at work. We all owe her our appreciation!

PEDIGREE CHARTS OF OGS MEMBERS

If you are an OGS member whose chart has not been published in the Quarterly, please send your pedigree information to the editor at the address indicated on the inside front cover. Even though you may have shared lines within our society, this publication goes to many libraries and societies in the US.

Climbing

by Monty C. Peden, August 2001

Why do we go on searching, striving to climb the family tree?
The chosen family story tellers--we are the keepers of history.
Called to record the knowledge of all our ancestors and kin,
We recall their wonderful stories and make them live again.

Genealogists are story keepers.....remembering

Digging to discover them--so many people, dates, and places,
Bibles, reunions and pictures, sorting all those names and faces,
Abstracts, censuses, and wills--many kinds of documentation,
Then, fact by fact, we assemble each preceding generation.

Roots, leaves, and branches make trees.....recording.

To learn where they lived, and how they farmed their lands,
Real people just like us, with beating hearts, and weary hands,
They are not only some names found on dusty bookshelves,
Knowing our ancestors we are more able to know ourselves.

Real people with warm hearts.....understanding.

Genealogy is our hobby, our love--some consider it an obsession,
To find something of great-great-grandpa's, a long lost possession,
Reaching back to our forefathers fills the soul with love and pride,
Like knowing great-grandma before she was great-grandpa's bride.

Grandma and Grandpa held this!.....connecting.

Finding a grave in a cemetery, standing there forgotten and alone,
And with joyful, tearful eyes, before the weathered old stone,
We talk to our loved one, "Grandma, how proud you would be!
Your great-grandkids are grown; you have a wonderful family."

A quiet moment for heartfelt emotions.....feeling.

Drawing strength from many land and times, our roots go deep,
Different cultures and traditions are treasures we must keep,
Knowing and remembering our forefathers as links to the past,
Thus we build a strong family that will last and last and last.

Uniqueness and variety in our past.....honoring.

Genealogy is more than lots of records or a filled-in pedigree chart,
Families need embellished, treasured, like a precious work of art,
The tales of travels and traditions--trials, triumphs and tears;
Wonderful stories of our ancestors to cherish through the years.

The joys and glories of family stories.....sharing.

A FAMILY SEARCH EXPERIENCE

David Purtee

It is not often that a family line falls into place in a matter of a couple of days, but here is how it happened to me.

Family stories told of another brother, my Great Uncle August, who came to America from Germany, married Hattie, and had four children: John, Hattie, Sophia and Marie. Over the years I had confirmed the marriage of Rebecca to August in 1855 from some Evangelical Lutheran Church records in Franklin County, Pennsylvania. The next discovery was through the 1880 Census Index where I tried several variations of the family name and finally hit upon the family of August and Rebecca Dilky with three children, Sophia, John and Rebecca, in Washington County, Maryland. The last piece of information I learned from my missing family was through a volunteer on the GENWEB for Washington County, Maryland. She told of a Delke who had a recorded will. From the courthouse I was able to obtain the Last Will and Testament of August Delke and the names of all the family. From there my luck ran out.

That is, until recently, when I had the opportunity to go visit my daughter in Alexandria, Virginia, for a couple of weeks. One day we took a field trip up to Maryland to explore the area where my ancestors lived. We hit the jackpot. At the courthouse I found several entries in the Land Records for Augustus Dilk and John Dilke, the son. Next, the marriage records yielded the marriage of Rebecca, the youngest daughter. The other two daughters may have married also, but a fire in 1871 had destroyed the records in that time frame.

Because we learned the family had property in Ringgold, Maryland; we drove to that small community and went through the cemetery. We drew a blank, although there were several rows of old tombstones with illegible writing due to the years of weathering. We went on the Waynesboro, Pennsylvania, three miles north where the church records of August's marriage would be located. We did not find the church; but we found a small community library with an excellent genealogy room. From there we found our ancestors listed in the cemetery records of Harbaugh's German Reformed Church in an adjoining Pennsylvania town. Our search for the day ended in the graveyard of the church where we found August, wife Rebecca, and children - Sophia, Rebecca, and John.

That night we poured over the documents and information we collected. I had hopes to find some living descendants but it looked like we had come to the end, again. August and his wife, the two daughters, Sophia and Rebecca (using their maiden names) were all on one headstone, and all died before 1900. John, on the other hand, died in 1940. That was not any better news as one of the land records indicated he was unmarried in 1929. It looked like our luck ran out again. But then I realized, from the cemetery records that in the middle of the family plot was a tombstone of a young boy, named John, the son of Luke and Mary Harbaugh. Was this Mary the missing daughter and could it be that young John was named after his uncle? Maybe there are some living descendants still to find! We are planning another field trip to the area tomorrow to see if we can find any evidence to answer these questions.

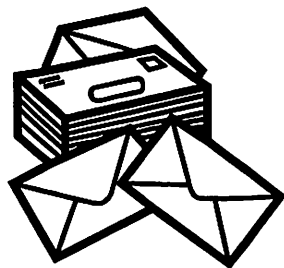

What I have learned from this is a family researcher has to use all the resources available: family information, church records, census records, the Internet, volunteers, courthouse records, and the libraries. Lastly, take a field trip to your ancestor's homeland, if at all possible. Most important though, is to review, review, review the information you have collected. Follow this advice; perhaps you too, will be able to piece together a missing line of your family tree.

Letters To A Son And To A Stepson

Roger Newman

These two letters were written to me in January 1964 when I made contact with my father after 19 years of separation. One was written by my father and the other by his wife. I last saw my father in 1945 when I was one year old and got reunited with him when I was almost 20. [Editor's

Note: As you can see, vital genealogical information does not always come from searching in musty archives or reading census microfilm. It is very important to contact every family member or those connected to our families.]

1-18-64

Dear Son:

I write better with a pencil and can correct my errors that way. I know how you must have felt when you sat down to write to a stranger. Don't think I haven't thought of you over the years but your mother and I were not too friendly after the divorce and I figured that rather than stir up her family it best I not write, however every time my transfer was due I always put in for the Base there hoping to see you. Your mother had her ideas about not telling you about me and I think you may know them I don't. All people are not as easy going and forgiving as me I guess, take here at my home my wife had been married twice previously and has two children by Mr. Cato and one by Mr. Houston, then there is our own daughter Olive Marie. Mr. Cato was and is still welcome in my house and when ever he is around he makes my home his home, his Dad, his brother and his son (my step-son) Gary use to throw our hunting gear in their truck and head for the hills. Mr. Houston was last heard of in Nevada and maybe he thinks like me about disturbing the family as we have never heard from him but he also would be welcome to come and see his son George. At the present we have a houseful as Jacqueline (Mr. Cato's daughter) is staying with us with her 3 children as he and her husband have split up. I sure enjoy these step grandchildren as if they were mine, Gary also has one. Gary is a painter and is working about 150 miles north of here. Jacqueline works as a cashier in the Safeway store here in Seaside. Olive, your half sister is in the eighth grade (13 years old, 5'3", 115 lbs.) and George is 16 years old (5'11-1/2", 143 lbs.) and a junior in high school. For me born 12-20-14, Kimberly, Idaho moved to Albion, Idaho 1928 (my mother passed away in 1927). I am one of nine children 8 living. Graduated from Albion High School 1933, Albion State Normal School (2 yr Teachers College) 1935, taught school 1 term 1936, joined Navy Dec 1937, assigned to Pearl Harbor 1938, served aboard submarines USS Dolphin & USS Narwhal & Sub Base Pearl. Returned to states in Nov. 1941. Met your mother in San Francisco and we were married in Reno March 1942 just before going over seas. Returned in June 1943 assigned to NAS Pasco, Washington, made Warrant Pay Clerk was assigned to USS Kitkun Bay (CVE71), overseas again until March 45 transferred to USS Sheridan APA51, overseas again Oct 45 reverted to Chief assigned to NAS Alameda then to NAF Monterey then NAS Barkers Point VR3, USS Chouffe, NAS Moffett Field retired 1957. Started working for the Post Office April 1958 and am still with it. I wear glasses when I think of them but don't need them very often have a partial plate (one tooth), since turning up with diabetes I have lost 45 lbs. And have that much more to go, have it, the diabetes under control but not my diet, so have to work on it harder. My father is 82 and lives in Jerome, Idaho near the rest of my family. My brother Raymond is principal of one of the grade schools there; my brother Harold is supt. of schools at Kuna, Idaho, my brother Harry teaches in a Jr. High in Idaho Falls, Idaho, my brother Dick is a drifter in and around Burley, Idaho, my sister Marie teaches in Nevada, my sister Shirley lives in Twin Falls, Idaho and my baby sister Rosa Lea lives in Kimberly, Idaho, My older sister Dolly passed away at the age of 6 months. My father came to this country from Denmark around 1900. My mother migrated from Colorado.

One thing son I would like you to know and that is I filed for the divorce and was granted it and by court order, I made an allotment from my Navy pay to your mother which she received until I retired, she never wrote me about not receiving money for you, maybe it was because the divorce said neither would take you from the State of Washington without the others permission and she might have thought I would have taken her to court for violation of the court order and then you would have to know about me.

My wife ask me if she could write you, as she doesn't want you to think she was the cause of me not contacting you.

Will get one of the cameras out and get some snaps made so you can see what we all look like down this way.

Has been raining nights lately, haven't got wet out carrying the mail so far.

Hope it clears up in the morning so I can tune up my Ford a little.

Love Forever

Dad

Your mother and I had some words over changing your name (adoption) just before you left for Alaska.

~ ~ ~ ~ ~

Seaside, Calif.

Jan. 19, 1964

Dear Roger:

Thought I would write you a few lines, you don't know how very happy we were to hear from you.

Roger I do hope you will read this letter and understand why I am writing.

Your father and I married in 1948. My son George was only 11 mos old, his father left him and I at my family home when we came out of the hospital. So far George has never seen his father but I have told him, in fact he was 7 yrs old when I explained to him the fact that your father was not his father. He was quite upset for a few days but loves your father very dearly. I also have a daughter Jackie 27 yrs old and a son Gary 24 yrs old. Jackie has three children, Kathy age 6 yrs. Ricky age 5 yrs and Dawn age 10 mos. Gary has one little girl Kelly Ann age 1 yr 2 mos.

We have a picture of you and your father that is on my dresser and has been ever since we were married. Roger you have a very wonderful father, he is kind, considerate and has given me a very happy and fulfilled life, but try to understand that he has always thought of you. It is hard for me to write this letter and try and explain.

Your father has always more or less kept in contact with you in his heart; we never talked too much about the situation, as he would be hurt so deeply. He loved you so much and talking to different people such as a Chaplain and Navy Chief who knew you in Alaska, he kept in his heart. I asked him many times to contact you but he always said he did not want to disturb your life.

When your Aunt Bobbie wrote a few lines at Christmas telling of your Mom's death it upset me greatly. Your father was at work and George and Olive were decorating our Christmas Tree. Your Dad had been ill and had not been feeling too well. When he came home I told him. I know he was upset but some things have to be told. He called your Aunt and talked with her.

Roger believe me we all wish you could be with us, your father is so looking forward to seeing you and hearing from you as often as you can find time to write.

You are probably wondering about me. Well, putting it plainly I am just a very plain ordinary person. I was raised on a farm in the neighborhood of Seaside. I am 50 yrs old which your father always kids me about. I'm a brunette with some gray hair, brown eyes, 5'9-3/4" tall and weigh about 155 lbs. Stay at home, don't like to go out much. Like bowling but am not a bowler, but really like trying. You must bowl as one of your father's friends saw you at a bowling alley up there. Believe me Roger I'm a very plain person but think you and I could get along together.

Now maybe you would like to hear about your half sister. Olive was named after your grandmother and my mother. If you like someone who is full of talk likes to dance and give you nothing but a bad time that's her. She's really a doll, but as for pictures she is not photogenic so will send you a picture anyway when I can. She could be an "A" student in school but when she heard you weren't too good in English she was real thrilled because she said you and her had something in common. She is in the 8th grade. Your father keeps at her but at 13 yrs old she does her schoolwork but is just a teenager at heart. She is so looking forward to meeting you she has already told all her girl friends she has you and George as brothers. Of course Gary being married don't come in the picture.

Well Roger this about winds up my letter, I hope you will understand why I've wrote and will write to me also. Your father is so happy to know you are going to college and are sure he will hope to see you take more schooling. I'm sure if your girl friend loves you she will want you to do the same. Believe me in this day & age education is a must.

I hope you will understand all I have wrote and know that we think of you always and that you will find it in your heart to understand.

Please write Roger and write often, send us your picture as soon as you can.

Think kindly of the past as you have a long future ahead.

Sincerely, Rena

What Day Was the Federal Census Taken?

There are two dates to pay attention to in each census – the day the census taker visited each home and the day on which all answers should be based. The chart below reflects the census "day" change.

Example: If the enumerator visited a house on 7 March 1821 – 7 months after the census day, he was to count the people who lived in that house as of 7 Aug 1820. You need to record two days – the census day and the enumeration date.

Year	Census Day	Time Allowed
1790	2 Aug 1790	9 months
1800	4 Aug 1800	9 months
1810	6 Aug 1810	10 months
1820	7 Aug 1820	13 months
1830	1 Jun 1830	12 months
1840	1 Jun 1840	18 months

1850	1 Jun 1850	5 months
1860	1 Jun 1860	5 months
1870	1 Jun 1870	5 months
1880	1 Jun 1880	1 month
1890	1 Jun 1890	1 month
1900	1 Jun 1900	1 month
1910	15 Apr 1910	1 month
1920	1 Jan 1920	1 month

ROBERTS STOCK	Seeking descendants of Adna ROBERTS and Mary Elizabeth STOCK, and their descendants, buried in the Grand Mound Cemetery, Thurston County. I would like to locate any living descendants of this couple, as they are cousins I have never met but I feel confident some of them live in the area as I find fresh flowers on the graves after Memorial Day. I am related to them through my great great grandfather, John Frederick STOCK, the father of Mary Elizabeth STOCK and Christina STOCK.

EXCHANGE NOTES

By Jean Laws & Letty Schoch

The publications mentioned are sent to our society in exchange for our Quarterly which is sent to them. They are in the filed alphabetically by state and county in the vertical files in the genealogy section of the Olympia Library. Some of them are eventually bound and placed with the bound periodicals in the genealogy section or in storage at the Montesano Library but can be ordered at the reference desk to be sent to your library for your use.

- ALLEN COUNTY LIBRARY An article on the History and Genealogy Department of the Allen County Public Library, one of the biggest and best genealogical collections in US, appears in the Hoosier Genealogist (Sep 2001, Indiana Historical Society). They subscribe to our society so have all our news and publications. The library's website is www.acpl.lib.in.us. Click on Library catalog and Genealogy. They will do research by mail and e-mail.
- TRANSCRIBING A CEMETERY The Genealogical Record (Houston County, TX, "Genealogical Forum", Sep 2001) has an amusing but helpful article on transcribing a cemetery. Lesson learned, find out how to do it before you try it.
- ILLINOIS ON THE WEB From the Timber Trails (Yamhill County Genealogical Society, Oct 2001) I'm going to copy these pages on IL research online as there are 2 pages of records listed. Always nice to find a freebie.
- "TELLING YOUR ANCESTOR'S STORY" This may be the last Bulletin as the Society can't find anyone to be editor out of 1200 members. Volunteers are so important but hard to find. A great story in this issue on "Telling your ancestor's story." The author uses a unique form--a resume. Take a look at this different approach. (Seattle Genealogical Society Bulletin, Autumn 2001)
- FAMILY HISTORIES How do you determine if a history has been written on your family? Many sources are in the library but not up-to-date. Local History and Genealogy Librarian, issue 6 published by Heritage Quest has a list of genealogies and family histories pub in 2001. It will be filed under Heritage Quest in the vertical file.
- MISSOURI DIVORCES 1832-33
MISSOURI-IOWA BORDER DISPUTE Missouri divorces granted by the General Assembly 1832-1833 appear in this issue. If you have ancestors on the Missouri-Iowa border, you should read the Missouri and Iowa Border Dispute in this issue and what counties it affected. (Kansas City Genealogist, Fall 2001)
- GREENE CO, PA NATURALIZATIONS Lots of records and info on Greene Co, PA including "Early Naturalization Records of Greene County." Since naturalizations are difficult to find, this could be a breakthrough. (Cornerstone Clues, Nov 2001)

WWII SHIPS
SAN LUIS OBISPO COUNTY

Lots of short articles on various subjects. The computer interest page has interesting web sites and sources for WWII military ship info. There's a research guide to San Luis Obispo County Clerk and Recorder's records and even one on the Austrian War Archives. (Bulletin of the San Luis Obispo County Genealogical Society, Nov 2001)

GRANT CO, WA
CENSUS

A partial list of 1920 Grant County, WA census and an index of Stratford (Grant County) Cemetery have been printed in this quarterly. (Big Bend Register, Dec 2001)

NEW MEXICO RE-CORDS

Researchers from the following noted cities may find long searched for records: selected Santa Cruz marriages 1750-1799 from the Holy Cross Catholic Church and published vital records births, deaths, marriages and divorces from the Albuquerque, NM Daily Record for 1891 part 3, m-z {New Mexico Genealogist, Dec2001}

FISKE LIBRARY

Some tips from Gary Zimmerman of the Fiske Genealogical Foundation in Seattle can be found in their December 2001 Newsletter. An article on the internet, Virginia's Northern neck, a new tool for New Hampshire Genealogy and Probate Court of Cuyahoga County, OH which includes Cleveland now on line.

HELP ??

"Any time you see a turtle on top of a fence post, you know he had some help". --Alex Haley (American Historical Society of Germans from Russia, Jan-Feb 2002, Greater Seattle Chapter)

PENNSYLVANIA
MN HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Pennsylvania is one of the states that recently launched the Archives Records Information Access System (ARIAS) at www.phme.state.pa.us. At this time you will find 200,000 images relating to Pennsylvanians who participated in the Revolutionary War, Spanish-American War and WW I with 300,000 Civil War and Mexican Border Campaign service card images being added. Eventually the site will feature 19th century county birth, death and marriage dockets. Also in this issue The Minnesota Historical Society is now online with an index of death certificates from 1908 to 1946 and you can search by name, year of death or county of death This is just the first phase of the project. people.mhs.org/dci (Grays Harbor Genealogy Society, Jan-Feb 2002)

ELLIS ISLAND
NAME CHANGES

If you have a family story that your immigrant ancestor's name was changed when he was processed through Ellis Island, you should read the article "Name changes at Ellis Island, Fact or Fiction." (The Tree Branch, Nov 2001)

MAIDEN NAMES

Keeping in mind that land records are a great resource tool, an article "The use of land records in Identifying Maiden Names of Women" might have some ideas to resolve your research problems. (The Back

Tracker, Puget Sound Genealogical Society, Sep 2001)

WALDSMULLER
MAP

The Library of Congress has acquired the first and only known copy of the 1507 Waldsmuller map to bear the name "America". It has been referred to as "America's Birth Certificate" and is made up of 12 sheets, each measuring 16 x 23 1/4 inches resulting in an overall map that measures 4.5 feet by 8 feet. The map will also be scanned and mounted on the Library's web site at www.loc.gov (Chelan Valley Genealogical Society, The Apple Orchard, Nov-Dec 2001)

TIME LINES

Time lines are fun--the Family Tree Searcher from Grays Harbor Genealogical Society (Non-Dec 2001) has an article featuring what happened in the 1800's.

JACKSON COUNTY, OR RECORDS

The Jackson County, OR Society publishes a great many Jackson County records. Some in this issue are "Died but not buried in Jackson, County OR," "Pensioners on the Roll of 1883," "History of Jackson County P.O.s" and much more. (Rogue Digger, Winter 2001)

IN RECORDS

This issue has a fascinating article on "Creating A Picture Of Your Family History" with details of how to collect pictures, research and display them with examples from Brookville, Franklin County, IN. Also has many mini articles from each region of IN. (Hoosier Genealogist, Dec 2001)

WRITING FAMILY HISTORY
PERSONALITY TRAITS

"Countdown to Success A Technique for Writing family history" has a good approach for getting started that may just be what you need to write you family's history. She suggests the 5, 4, 3, 2, 1 method. It takes 5 min and you write 4 characteristics of the ancestor, 3 interests, hobbies or occupations, 2 unique traits and achievements, 1 special item of interest on the person. Another article has a list of personality traits--positive neutral and negative that can be used to describe your ancestor. (Minnesota Genealogist, Sum 2001)

MYTHS ABOUT AN-CESTORS

Do you believe everything you read or hear? You might want to re-think your genealogy after reading the article "Nine Myths About Our Ancestors?" For instance, not everyone moved West, many went north or south or back east aafter going west. And many families moved 5 0 6 time in as many states. (Muskingum County, OH Genealogical Society, Dec 2001)

1853 OREGON CEN-SUS

Did you know that Oregon took an 1853 census? These was to get a more accurate count since so many men from Or were in California gold fields during 1848-51. Also, in 1853, the N part of Oregon formed the new territory of Washington. So this issue prints the 1853 census of Marian County They are available at OR State Archives.

(Beaver Briefs, Willamette Valley, OR, Fall 2001)

ELMORE CO, ID

This issue features Elmore County. Also includes an article on why we should bother to keep records, write histories and all the things genealogists do. (Idaho Genealogical Society, Winter 2001)

COLONIAL OCCU- PATIONS

Colorteur, pettifogger and stuffgownsmen and just a few Colonial occupations that most of us today wouldn't recognize by name. You may want to check the rest of the list to see if your occupation is included. Oh, by the way...peddler of books, shyster lawyer and Junior barrister are three mentioned Colonial occupations. (Mason County, WA, Log, Dec 2001)

GERMAN ANCES- TRAL VILLAGE

Reading the article "Finding your German Ancestral Village" is like going to a mini seminar. Good information. Researchers with Hispanic ancestry will find the article "Addressing the needs of the Hispanic Genealogist" informative. (FGS Forum, Fall 2001)

HISPANIC RE- SEARCH NAMING PATTERNS

It is important to know the naming customs of the country your ancestors lived, such as Germany, or immigrated to America from. When the names are given at baptism, the first name is a spiritual, saint's name. The practice developed from the Roman Catholic tradition and continued on by the Protestants in their naming customs. The spiritual name given to honor a saint was usually repeatedly given to all the children of the family of the same sex. After baptism the person would be known by his middle name that was his secular name. (Mandan/Bismarck, Dakota Homestead Historical Newsletter, Dec 2001)

WOMEN & PROP- ERTY RIGHTS

Long and very detailed article on Women and Property Rights in America. This would be very helpful while working with land records and identifying female maiden names. Even includes a list of states and the year each completed adoption of property acts allowing a woman to own property giving her complete control over that property. Louisiana was the last in 1980! (Timber Trails, Yamhill County OR Genealogical Society, Jan 2002)

INDEXES BUMPER STICKERS

Can't find someone in an index? Before you write it off, read Hansen's 10 rules for using indexes and you may have good luck. For instance, #4: Virtually every pre WWII record...originated as an attempt by an individual to put on paper what he or she thought was heard. #6: It doesn't matter how you spell the name; it only matters how the indexer spelled it. Same issue; Bumper stickers seen: "Genealogy, haunting down your ancestors" and "I've got a life, I look for dead people." (Westward Into Nebraska, Greater Omaha Genealogical Society, Nov/Dec 2001)

FT WORTH 1849-53

The Dec 2001 issue of Footprints (Fort Worth TX, Genealogical Soci-

SOLDIERS	ety) contains a Muster Roll of Soldiers who served at Ft Worth 1849-1853 and much more
SCHOOL CENSUS DEEDS	The 1908 Logan school census. Includes parents, child, birth date, age, sex, school address, and signature. Something to look into in your area. Good article on "Why On Earth Look at Deeds?" Goes well with article on women's property rights (Researcher , Tacoma Pierce County Genealogical Society Winter 2002)
JACKSON CO, MO SCHOOLS CHOLERA DEATHS, FT ATKINSON, MO	Names of teachers, their PO addresses and the schools of Jackson County, Missouri 1925-6 and Cholera deaths in 1820--Lists a great number of men who died in the epidemic at Ft Atkinson, Missouri Territory (now Nebraska). (Kansas City (Mo) Genealogist , Fall 2001)
AHNENTAFELS BREMER FAMILY	Issue is filled with good articles, e.g., "Ahnentafels Anyone?," "Bremerton- the Bremer family," "Cousin Huntin," and "Tale of 2 Cemeteries." (Backtracker , Puget Sound Genealogical Society, Newsletter , Port Orchard, WA)
MONTANA DEATH DATA SPAM	Montana death data is being entered in a computer format. Also a good article on getting rid of and preventing more SPAM on your computer. (Tree Branch Dawson County, MT, Feb 2002)
MO BURNED COURTHOUSES	St Louis deaths 1858-1860 from sunstroke--a heat wave that never quit killed many people and a good article on Missouri's burned courthouses, how to find lost information and a list of them with date burned are all in the Fall 2001 issue of the St Louis Genealogical Society Quarterly .
ST. LOUIS, MO CEMETERIES SPREADSHEETS	A long article on St Louis cemeteries and a project to locate and index all of them as well as a good article on spreadsheet tips appear in the St Louis Genealogical Society Quarterly . (Winter 2001)
BICYCLE LICENSES	Now here is a unique source—a list of Port Townsend Bicycle Licenses issued 1899-1900 gives name, date issued, bicycle type and tag. (Jefferson County, WA Genealogical Society Newsletter , Spring 2002)
COMPUTER AND SCANNER USE	An impressive American flag in the shape of Washington State is on the cover of the January 2002 Pioneer Branches (Northeast WA Genealogical Society). A good article on computers and how to use your scanner for other than photos is also here.

Genealogy and Local History Online

Changes in accessing this--you need to go to 1) www.timberland.lib.wa.us/ 2) Reference Resources, 3) Heritage Quest Online, 4) enter library card number and you have your choice of books or the census. A truly wonderful resource. Do try it out.
