EDITORIAL

With this combined issue for 2000, we are now back on schedule with this publication and with help from everyone, we will remain there. Please help me by sending in articles, pedigree charts, and queries by the deadline for the next issue. If items are submitted by the 15th of the month preceding publication, we should be able to get it out on time.

Many thanks to the contributors to this issue and especially to those who work behind the scenes copying records for publication. Without them, we would not have a Quarterly. The naturalizations in this issue were copied by Elaine Taylor and Letty Schoch. The Quarterly would not arrive in your mailbox without Dick Johnson's crew who take it to the printer, pick it up, and see that it is mailed.

Next issue will start a new year and a new look for the cover of the Quarterly as we begin a project of cover photos from the pioneer Thurston County ancestors and relatives (those who arrived before November 11, 1889) of our members and readers. These will be accompanied by information about the individual(s). If you have a pioneer ancestor or relative and are willing to send a photo, (please, no originals but must be a photo not a photocopy) the subjects will become "cover" girls or boys! What a great opportunity to share a bit of your family history and maybe get in touch with more family members.

If you have had your pedigree chart printed in the Quarterly and would like to add corrections or additions, be sure to submit them.

Alma Greenwood

VICE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

A growing interest in genealogy and history in general in the Olympia area is challenging the Olympia Genealogical Society. Although our purpose is "to promote the study, interest and research of family and local histories and to encourage assistance, cooperation and guidance to members, friends, and the community," the Society can't do it all. We can't be all things to all people and we can't do it alone.

One way to fulfill this purpose is to make our members aware of the many varied resources available in the area. Some of these are the Olympia Timberland Library, the Washington State Library, the Southwest Washington State Archives, and the Family History Center, all in Olympia. A short distance away are the Heritage Quest Research Library and Bookstore in Sumner, the Seattle and Tacoma Public Library and the National Archives in Seattle. There are also many historical organizations in the area.

An important event of which our members should be aware is the National Genealogical Society Conference in Portland in May. Nationally recognized speakers and invaluable workshops will be available to us just down the freeway.

Let's all take advantage of all the resources and cooperate with these other groups for the overall goal of educating people about genealogy and history.

NEWS & NOTES – 1999 – 2000
Pat Philippsen

OGS Annual Dinner on March 11, 1999, featured Cyndi Howells, speaking on "Internet Follies" at Panorama City Restaurant, Lacey. 80 tickets were sold.

Seventy five registered for the Spring Seminar, featuring Larry Jensen on April 24, 1999. His topic was German genealogical research. The seminar was held at the First United Methodist Church in Olympia.

June 1999 twenty two members purchased the 9th edition of The Handybook for Genealogists at a pre-publication price of $34.95.

June 1999 one hundred forty eight members contributed names to the revised surname index. The committee was chaired by Jeane LaLonde. Regular sales began with the OGS 25th anniversary meeting.

June 10, 1999, the 25th OGS anniversary was celebrated with a beautifully decorated cake. Special guests were: Laura Pemberton Sparr, President, Washington State Genealogical Society, 1st elected officers, charter members, and past presidents.

A Beginners Interest Group was started by Lois Fenske in September, 1999.

March 9, 2000, Rosemary Bodien, spoke at the OGS Annual Dinner. Her topic was "Czech it Out". Thirty-eight attended the dinner.

April 22, 2000, Cyndi Howells was the featured speaker at the Spring Seminar held at the North Thurston Auditorium. Her topic was "Netting Your Ancestors". One hundred and seventy two people attended.

June 2000, OGS bylaws were updated and approved by the members at the regular meeting. It was the first time since 1987 that the bylaws had been updated.

June 2000, new officers were elected: President - Rich Davis; Vice President - Lois Fenske; Secretary - Pat Philippsen; and Treasurer - Jan Smith. Karen Bowen, was subsequently chosen to replace Jan Smith since she was ill.

September 2000. OGS regular meetings were moved to the Thurston County Courthouse due to construction at the Olympia Timberland Library. After twenty-six years the library no longer has meeting space for the society.

A great many family trees were started by grafting.

Am I in the right family tree?

Ever find an ancestor HANGING from the family tree???

PEDIGREE CHARTS OF OGS MEMBERS

If you are an OGS member and would like to have your pedigree chart printed here, please send your pedigree information to the editor at the address indicated on the inside front cover. Even though you may not find shared lines within our society, this publication goes to many libraries and societies all over the United States so is read by many individuals besides our members.

EXCHANGE NOTES

By Jean Laws & Letty Schoch

- ATTENTION: SOUTH DAKOTA RE-SEARCHERS The South Dakota Genealogical Society Quarterly, July 2000, has an article on the SD Land Patents database. This gives you all the information you need to send for a patent file on patentees. Also a list of patentees from A-C is printed in the quarterly. This will be continued in future issues.
- ANY SEAGOING ANCESTORS? The Researcher from Tacoma Pierce County Genealogical Society, Spring 2000 has the beginning of a very extensive article called "Did Your Ancestor Go To Sea? , Part 1, Laying the Groundwork?" It's interesting reading for anyone but especially if you had a seagoing ancestor. Also in this issue, as usual, is the new items on the shelf in the genealogy collection of the Tacoma Public Library. If you haven't been there lately or at all you're missing a great local resource.
- THE NEED TO DOCUMENT Family Backtracking from the Puget Sound Genealogical Society (WA), June 2000 features an important and thought-provoking article on the argument for documentation.
- MISSOURI WW I DRAFT REGISTRATION CARDS The St. Louis, Missouri Genealogical Society Quarterly, Summer 2000 has a detailed article on this source. It explains all terms and aids for finding these cards.
- OMAHA INDEX Westward Into Nebraska, Greater Omaha Genealogical Society, August 2000 says a useful tool is the Omaha Index located at the W. Dale Clark Library. All Omaha history books have been included in an enormous union index. The History & Social Sciences desk will do a search upon request.
- FGS FORUM CUMBERLAND GAP 1930 CENSUS Our Society belongs to the Federation of Genealogical Societies and receives its Forum, Summer 2000 which is typical of this magazine. It should be read by all members as it is a good source of current genealogical events, books, and many articles of interest to anyone. This issue features an article on the Cumberland Gap where many of our ancestors traveled on their way west. Also a very detailed article on the 1930 census which will be released April 1, 2002. All of the questions on that census are included, which states were indexed, etc. Be prepared.
- STATE CENSUSES The September 2000 issue of the Dakota Homestead Historical Newsletter (Mandan Historical & Genealogical Society) reminded me of the many territorial or state censuses available to us, often for the years between the federal censuses. This one is of the Dakota Territorial Census of 1885 but be sure to check out what's available in other states. Many of the Dakota ones are for sale at a reasonable price and most you can get through the FHC.

WASHINGTON STATE
ROGER NEWMAN

We receive and file the Washington State Genealogical Society Newsletter and the September-October 2000 issue is full of items of interest in Washington State. Our own Roger Newman is the corresponding secretary and this issue features a sketch about him. As long as I've known Roger, I learned more about him (me too, Editor). Information on the society, a speaker's booklet, and membership directory has been put in the file.

MAIDEN NAMES

The second part of a 3-part article on finding maiden names appears in the September 2000 issue of Westward Into Nebraska (Greater Omaha Genealogical Society). Maybe you think you've tried everything but read this article and see if you don't find some new clues.

NOTABLE WOMEN OF EARLY AMERICA

Are any of your ancestors among these notable women of early America? The Summer 2000 issue of the American Elm (Springfield, MA) features the following women who were considered important even if not in the history books: Catherine Ferguson, Lucretia Mott, Mary Philipse, Catherine Sedgewich, Mercy Warren, and Phillis Wheatly. Another interesting article in this issue is "Girls on the Mayflower." Did you know there were eleven girls on board between babies and seventeen? They weren't "weak" since none died on the voyage and only two died the first winter. Two of them were mine so I'm copying this for my files!

ABBREVIATIONS IN OLD DOCUMENTS

The Clan Digger (Pacific County, Washington Genealogical Society) has a list of initials found in old documents in the September 2000 issue. For instance, dsp-died without issue; dspl-died without legitimate issue, dvm-died in the lifetime of his mother, inst-present month.

FAMILY FILES

Are you familiar with "Family Files?" The Apple Orchard (Chelan Valley Genealogical Society, September-October 2000) tells about this valuable resource. Many archives and libraries have family files—information collected on local families. When you visit or write to one of these institutions, be sure to inquire about family files. You can also contribute to these and others will find you!

NEW BOOKS AT SGS

Do you skip quarterlies because you don't have ancestors in the area? You may be surprised at what you find in them. A good feature of the Seattle Genealogical Society Bulletin (Summer 2000) and all their other issues is listings of new acquisitions in the Seattle Genealogical Society Library. Make a list of the ones that interest you and you'll be all set for your next research trip. It never hurts to read any publication's queries and most contain online addresses.

BE SURE YOU HAVE THE RIGHT PER-SON
TERY

I found an interesting article in the Fall 2000 Fox Valley Genealogical Society Bulletin (Appleton, WI) called "Right Name, Wrong Body." You cannot assume that someone with the right name and age and area is your ancestor. Some examples of the consequences of jumping to conclusions are in this article. It also has a good article on how to locate a cemetery which includes the religious symbols you might find on a tombstone.

GERMAN NAMES

An article on identifying German names is found in the Genealogical Record (Houston, Texas Genealogical Society Bulletin, June 2000). This includes what to look for in first and last names. It tells where names come from, the short forms of given names, and regional differences.

SOUTHERN CALI-FORNIA WOMEN

The Searcher (Southern California Genealogical Society, September-October 2000) contains "Life in 19th Century Southern California," revelations in a box of family letters, serving women—household service in the 19th century America, and even a Searcher Puzzle for you puzzle buffs. This publication always has interesting articles of general interest.

NEW LIBRARY IN VANCOUVER, WA

The Trail Breakers (Clark County, Washington Genealogical Society, Fall 2000) announces that their library has a new location at 717 Grand Boulevard in Vancouver. It is open Tuesday-Saturday 10-3 and 6-9 on Wednesday evening. They have many new books and room for more. This is another library you might want to visit if you are down that way.

ONLINE GENEAL-OGY

Several short articles on genealogy online appear in the July-August 2000 issue of the Apple Orchard (Chelan Valley Genealogical Society). One looks especially helpful for those with Canadian roots. If you don't have those, try cemetery records online. Or did you know that the DAR Library is also online. Check out this issue for more helpful info.

DAVID SHELTON

Sometimes you find the unexpected in our quarterlies. The Summer 2000 issue of the Trail Breakers (Clark County, Washington Genealogical Society) has an interesting piece called "Autobiographical Sketches of the Life and Adventures of David Shelton." It is taken from a manuscript in the Bancroft collection at the University of California, Berkeley. Learn about the early days in Mason County.

PENNSYLVANIA
GRAYS HARBOR

"You know you're in Pennsylvania if...." Read all about it in Family Tree Searcher (Grays Harbor, Washington Genealogical Society, July-

- PIONEER WOMEN August 2000). A couple of excerpts are: "You ask the waitress for dippy eggs" or "You call sloppy Joes 'barbecue.'" When it snows they put cinders on the road instead of sand. You turkey has "filling" not "stuffing or dressing." If grandma talked like this, maybe she's from Pennsylvania! In their May-June 2000 issue there is an interesting 2-part series on pioneer women who settled in Grays Harbor County.
- PIONEER TEACHERS According to the Big Bend Register (Grant County, Washington Genealogical Society, June 2000) teachers led different lives in pioneer times than they do now. Here is a story of May Niles who taught in Grant County in 1913-14. She had numerous jobs besides teaching such as lighting the fire, sweeping the room, and serving as janitor. On the plus side, she met her future husband that year.
- DOCUMENTATION
COULD YOU PASS
THE 8TH GRADE? A thoughtful article appears in the June 2000 issue of Family Backtracking (Puget Sound Genealogical Society) on documentation and its importance in family research even though all of us are lax in this. Also in this issue, an 1895 test to pass the 8th grade. Wonder how many of us would be promoted?
- GENEALOGY IQ The Paradise, California Genealogical Society Bulletin (Spring 2000) has an article that caught my attention—"Test Your Genealogy IQ"—short questions with long answers which might help you to build your genealogy skills.
- CALCULATING
BIRTH YEAR
MISCELLANEOUS
TIPS The Summer 2000 issue of the Bulletin of the San Luis Obispo County, California Genealogical Society has a handy one-page chart you can use to quickly calculate the year of birth of someone in the 1850-1920 census. For instance, if the census states a person is said to be 83 in 1860 you scan the chart and find a birth year of 1777. There are numerous other how-to's in this issue: dating a family Bible, finding a maiden name, and researching your varsity roots when you are told someone attended college. This can lead to other family info.
- ENJOY PUZZLES? Attention crossword puzzle fans! The Searcher, Journal of the Southern California Genealogical Society (July-August 2000) has a crossword puzzle with genealogical clues; also an article using Sherlock Holmes to solve a genealogical mystery. This is an ongoing series and makes good reading.
- CUSTER CO, ID
RAILROADS The Idaho Genealogical Society Quarterly features a different county in each issue. The Summer 2000 profiles Custer County and also includes an informative article on railroad and the western migration.
- FRENCH ANCESTRY Do you have French ancestry? John DuLong is writing a book called Tracing Your French Ancestry. The Bulletin from the Genealogical - Society of South Brevard, Florida has an article by him on North American French which includes Canada and the US. He explains about Acadians, Creoles, French Metis, and Huguenots.

- BATTLE AT BLUE MILLS If you are a Civil War buff, you might enjoy the article on the Battle at Blue Mills in Jackson County, Missouri in 1861 which is in the Kansas City Genealogist, Spring 2000. It even includes a partial list of those at the battle. This is a follow-up of an earlier article on the same battle.
- MISSOURI DRAFT REGISTRATION CARDS Speaking of Missouri, the St. Louis Genealogical Society Quarterly, Summer 2000 tells about Missouri's World War I draft registration cards. You can get the cards on microfilm from the Family History Library. There is a listing of every Missouri county with the film number.
- OREGON PIONEER CERTIFICATES You may be eligible for an Oregon Pioneer Certificate if your ancestors arrived in Oregon Territory prior to 1 October 1872 or an Early Settler Certificate if they came between then and 31 Dec 1900. Each issue of the Oregon Genealogical Society, Lane County gives a list of some of these pioneers.
- OREGON MARRIAGES Between 1859 and 1897, Rev. Moses Allen Williams married many couples in Jackson County, Oregon. A list of these marriages is included in The Rogue Digger (Medford, OR), Summer 2000. Lots of Jackson County info in this and other issues housed in our library.
- GREENE CO, PA Cornerstone Clues (Greene County, PA), August 2000, and other issues of this publication have a great deal of info on the county. This issue features articles on veterans buried in the county including a list of the number from each war—World War II had the most and a list of the War of 1812 vets includes the cemetery where they are buried.
- CHURCH HISTORIES Church histories are a good source of genealogical information and worth tracking down if your ancestors were members of a church for a period of time. A good example is an article in the Spring & Summer 2000 Texarkana, USA Quarterly. There is a history of the Redwater Methodist Church from 1880 to 1941. Besides the history, the article includes charter and new members and officers of the church. This is typical of a church history.
- WOOD COUNTY, WV The July-August 2000 West Augusta Historical & Genealogical Society (WV) Quarterly is full of Wood County information including deaths, 1910 census, marriages, etc.
- GENEALOGY LAWS You've heard of Murphy's Law but do you know the Laws of Genealogy? The Black Hills Nugget from Rapid City, SD, August 2000 has a list of some of them we've all run into: the will you need is in the safe on the Titanic, copies of old newspapers have holes which occur only on last names, the keeper of the vital records you need will just have been insulted by another genealogist.

FISKE LIBRARY

The Fiske Genealogical Foundation Library in Seattle is a source you may have overlooked. We receive their newsletter which will keep you posted on events, hours, what's new, and how to find it.

PRESERVATION

The Bulletin of the San Luis Obispo County Genealogical Society, Winter 2000, has a good article on preservation which is a compilation of material collected over the years by the author. It covers most of the material from their January meeting and is a concise summary you will find useful.

HUMOR

The Searcher (Southern California Genealogical Society, January 2000) "On the Lighter Side": He ain't heavy, he's my brother's aunt's sister's husband; I finally got it all together, now where did I put it?; Genealogy—chasing your own tale; The Laws of Heredity: American Tradition—all undesirable traits come from the other parent, it is a desirable thing to be well-descended but the glory goes to the ancestors; English law—he that has no fools, knaves, or beggars in his family was begot by a flash of lightening.

WASHINGTON PIONEERS

The Researcher (Tacoma-Pierce County Genealogical Society, Winter 2000) lists the members of the Washington Pioneer Association at the time of statehood: name, address, occupation, where and when born, where from and date of arrival. Also contains a good comprehensive article on English marriage records.

LETTER WRITING TITANIC PASSENGERS

Family Backtracking (Puget Sound Genealogical Society, March 2000) has an article on the importance of letter writing. The author compares letter writing vs. the Internet to an iceberg—the Internet is only the tip of the iceberg while the right kind of letters goes below the surface. Speaking of icebergs, this issue has started a list of the passengers on the Titanic.

SPECIAL 1880 CENSUS SCHEDULES

A source you may not be aware of is the 1880 census insanity schedule. There are also special schedules for prisoners, homeless children, blind, deaf, mute, and paupers. If you're "lucky" enough to have someone in these categories in 1880, there is much detailed info on them. They are record group M1528 in the National Archives Collection called DDD schedules. (Bulletin of San Luis Obispo County Genealogical Society, Spring 2000)

- CEMETERIES Check out the Clan Digger (Pacific County, Washington Genealogical Society)—very impressive layout with color photos and lettering. The April 2000 issue has a very informative article on cemeteries and markers—really well written and detailed.
- HOME SOURCES The Spring 2000 issue of the St. Louis Genealogical Society Quarterly has a thought-provoking article on the importance of home sources. There may be lots of clues in your home that you have not been aware of. All home sources should be identified and well documented. Search, document, and review are the keywords in using your home sources.
- REVIEW YOUR RECORDS The Milwaukee County Genealogical Society (WI) May 2000 issue's President's Message should be helpful to everyone. She suggests you record and really study documents you have filed away. There may be hidden clues or info you did not use the first time around. These could lead to new finds on your family. Read the article and give it a try.
- ARE YOU SPENDING TOO MUCH TIME ON YOUR COMPUTER? According to the Ft. Worth, TX Genealogical Society's quarterly Footprints (May 2000) you are spending too much time on your computer if: you try to enter your password on the microwave, you haven't played solitaire with real cards in years, you e-mail your buddy who works at the desk next to yours, your idea of being organized is multiple post-it notes, you chat often with a stranger in South America but haven't spoken to your next-door neighbor for a year, your biggest loss when the system crashed was losing all your best jokes, and you have time for lunch while your old computer boots up.
- COLLATERAL LINES The May 2000 issue of Cornerstone Clues (Greene County Pennsylvania Genealogical Society) has an excellent article on the benefits of researching your indirect lineage. Many beginners tend to trace their direct lines and ignore all the collaterals such as brothers, sisters, etc. This article gives many examples of useful info from records other than your ancestor's. I know in my case I found my great grandfather's parents from his brother's death certificate since he died at a time and place when death certificates were available and my great grandfather did not.
- FIRE AND YOUR RECORDS The Bulletin from the Seattle Genealogical Society (Spring 2000) has an article on genealogist's nightmare—a home fire. The author lost his house and all his records in a fire. He lists ways to prevent fire and if there is one, how to save your records.
- RECORDING INFO The Stillaguamish Star (Stillaguamish Valley Genealogical Society, May-June 2000) presents "Guidelines for Recording Names, Dates & Places." and figuring an approximate date and to "assume places."
