BEATTIE BLVD.

Some family actually laid out their plots like this?!

In Memory Of
ZETA ELAINE READ SHORT
9 Nov 1997

Zeta E. Short

Zeta Elaine (Read) Short, 76, a 19 year resident of Olympia, died of cancer Sunday, Nov. 9, 1997, at her home.

She was born Sept. 16, 1921, to Birt F. and Alice (Maxfield) Read in Corvallis, Ore.

She graduated from schools in Corvallis and attended Oregon State College.

She married James Hale Short on May 18, 1946, in Luke Field, Phoenix, Ariz.

Mrs. Short worked as a secretary for Clover Park School District and Tacoma Community College.

She was a member of the First Christian Church, Wally Byam Airstream Club, Daughters of the American Revolution, Daughters of the American Colonists, Olympia Genealogy Society, Retired Officers' Wives Club, Alpha Rebekah Lodge of Corvallis, and the Benton County Historical Society.

Mrs. Short is survived by her husband, James, Olympia; a daughter, Sharyl Zeilman, Jefferson, Ore.; a son, James Short Jr., Santa Rosa, Calif.; two sisters, Donna Chenoweth and Doris Thoen, both of Portland; a brother, Lyle Read, Canby, Ore.; four grandchildren; and numerous nieces and nephews.

A memorial service will begin at 11 a.m. Saturday, Nov. 15, 1997, at First Christian Church, Olympia. The Rev. Doug Dornhecker will officiate.

The family suggests memorial donations be made to the American Cancer Society.

Arrangements are by Woodlawn Funeral Home, Lacey.

We were saddened by the death of our member Zeta Short, and we extend our sympathies to her husband Jim and the rest of her family. Memorials in Zeta's name may be sent to our society at the regular address. A book of genealogical interest will be placed in the library as our remembrance to her.

In Memory Of
MYRALEIGH FARNSWORTH PETERS
25 Jan 1998

Myraleigh F. Peters

Myraleigh Farnsworth Peters, a resident of Olympia, died Sunday, Jan 25, 1998.

She was born in Los Angeles, California to Louis Leigh and Blanche (Langham) Farnsworth. She graduated high school in Los Angeles, California from Saint Mary's Academy. She was also a graduate of the University of Southern California. While attending USC, she was a member of the Alpha Iota Chapter of Delta Zeta Sorority.

She married Rudolph F. Peters, May 7, 1957, and they had one daughter. In 1968 Myraleigh, her father, and her daughter moved to the Olympia area. She loved the rain and the greenery of Washington State. Green was her favorite color. She loved gardens and flowers and the small animals that came to her yard to visit. She also loved cats, and had many over the years.

After coming to Olympia, she worked for the State of Washington, where she made many friends. She retired in December 1990.

After retirement Myraleigh took several car trips across the country to visit friends and relatives. She was an active member of the Olympia Genealogical Society and the Pioneer Association of the State of Washington.

Myraleigh is survived by her daughter Victoria, son-in-law Daniel DeBoer, grandsons James and Thomas DeBoer.

We were saddened by the death of our member Myraleigh Peters, and we extend our sympathies to her family. Memorials in Myraleigh's name may be sent to our society at the regular address. A book of genealogical interest will be placed in the library as our remembrance to her.

Canadian Research: Cloverdale Library a Nearby Research Site

Researchers in the Puget Sound area with family history reaching into Canada have an excellent research resource no farther than just beyond the international border, at the Cloverdale Branch Library, which contains the genealogical collection of British Columbia's Surrey Public Library. (Surrey is a different municipality from Vancouver.)

Cloverdale is about 15 miles north of Blaine, Washington, via Highway 543, the truck port of entry (not the waterside Peace Arch entry to its west), and BC's Pacific Highway. The library is two blocks east of the highway in Cloverdale's town center. It is open Monday-Friday, 9:30 a.m.-9 p.m., and Saturday, 10 a.m.-5 p.m. Very accommodating genealogical research aid is available for at least four hours daily except Monday, hours varying by day but including Wednesday evening.

The genealogy collection is housed on the library's second floor, a pleasing modern facility filled with low bookshelves, comfortable chairs and small round research tables. It has a bank of microfilm and microfiche readers for which there is a $2 Cdn. (about $1.50 US) hourly charge; six readers may be reserved (it's best to reserve in advance if traveling far) and one reader only is left for drop-ins.

Available for examination are all Canadian census films 1674-1901, and Newfoundland census films 1671-1945 (it was a late-comer to the Canadian confederation). The 1851 census is considered to be most useful, because it included not only name and age but occupation, religious affiliation, birth date, place of origin, and the cause of death if the person died during the census year.

Land records include a number of Upper Canada (Ontario) land books and those from Quebec and New Brunswick, and Metis (French-Native) and half-breed scrip records, which in the west also can include Caucasians and should be checked even if a Native connection is not believed to have existed.

There are immigration and passenger lists, including some port of arrival lists from 1817-1832, and the remainder fairly complete from 1865 on.

The collection includes some Ontario, Quebec and Nova Scotia church records, and Wesleyan Methodist records for the maritime provinces and Alberta. Vital records are held for Ontario from 1869 on (the only province which has released them, although an index to British Columbia records is now available on-line). Ontario's include a surname index.

Probate records for Ontario are on microfilm, and British Columbia will books 186-1937. There is an error-filled index to the latter, and a new, full-name index is to replace it.

Military records are held from 1767-1900, as are Loyalist muster rolls and loss claims for the War of 1812. There is a world-wide web computer site for Canadian World War I and II deaths.

The library collection includes all of the early British Columbia telephone books, but only those for Vancouver that are more recent.

The collection is not particularly heavy in printed material, although it has a reasonable book collection that focuses on Canadian and former British Empire items, many not available this side of the border. However, this is not the place to pursue other European research or American research, although check what is held -- you never know what you will find in any collection.

Canadian Genealogical Resources, a guide to genealogical materials held in the Surrey Public Library (Cloverdale Branch), is available in person or by mail from the branch for $27.50 Canadian including postage and tax (about $20 US at current exchange). The easiest order method for US purchasers to avoid the money-exchange-rate trap is by telephone using VISA or MasterCard - (604) 576-1384. The Library address is 5642-176A St., Surrey, BC, Canada V3S 4G9.

If you would like to visit another nearby genealogical collection while in the Surrey area, consider that of the British Columbia Genealogical Society, 12837 76th Ave., #211, in Surrey, not too far north and west of Cloverdale. When last noted, its hours were Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, 10 a.m.-3 p.m. To check current hours and directions, write the society at PO Box 88054, Richmond, BC, Canada V6X 3T6 or telephone (604) 325-0374 during library hours.

BLM Land Records Searching Made Easy!

The Bureau of Land Management - Eastern States, General Land Office has now placed over two million patent records on the Internet. (The original documents are now stored in acid-free boxes and protected in fireproof temperature-controlled vaults.) The on-line database can be searched based on last name and/or first name, patent number, or legal description. The results are outstanding, as you can see from the sample pages. A searcher can also view the electronic image of the actual patent.

This Internet site also describes "Early Public Land Laws" and allows us to download copies of the Acts of Congress that authorized the issuance of land patents under the various programs, such as:

- * Virginia Military Warrant Act of August 10, 1790
- * Military Survey and United Brethern Act of June 1, 1796
- * Creek Nation Act of March 3, 1817
- * Cash Entry Act of April 24, 1820
- * Choctaw Treaties and Act of September 15, 1830
- * Homestead Entry Act of May 20, 1862

Information about the history of the General Land Office and procedures for obtaining a land patent, as well as information pertaining to land descriptions and links to "state-specific" resources for historical land records" is also available.

Certificate.
No. 1024

The United States of America.

To all to whom these presents shall come, Greeting:

Whereas, James L. Gage, of Perry Township, Ohio, has deposited in the General Land Office of the United States, a certificate of the Register of the Land Office at Wooster, Ohio, whereby it appears that full payment has been made by the said James L. Gage, according to the provisions of the Act of Congress of the 24th of April, 1820, entitled "An act making further provision for the sale of the Public Lands," for the East half of the South East quarter of Section thirty-three, in Township four, in the United States Reserve of twelve miles square on the ... of Lake Erie, in the district of lands offered for sale at Wooster, Ohio, containing eighty acres, according to the official plat of the survey of the said Lands, returned to the General Land Office by the Surveyor General, which said tract has been purchased by the said James L. Gage.

NOW KNOW YE, That the UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, in consideration of the premises, and in conformity with the several acts of Congress, in such case made and provided, have Given and Granted, and, by these presents do give and grant, unto the said James L. Gage, and to his heirs, the said tract above described: To Have and to Hold the same, together with all the rights, privileges, immunities and appurtenances, of whatsoever nature thereto belonging, unto the said James L. Gage, and to his heirs and assigns forever.

In testimony whereof, I, John Quincy Adams,

PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, have caused these letters to be made Patent, and the seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed.

Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, the twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five, and of the Independence of the United States the fifty-first.

By the President,

J. L. A.

G. G.

Commissioner of the General Land Office.

*Cemetery Records
of Thurston County, Washington*

More than 24,500 names from 21 cemeteries are listed alphabetically in three soft cover, comb-bound volumes. Each listing includes the name, date of birth, date of death and any other information on the headstone. The information for all 21 cemeteries is presented in one alphabetical listing. This eliminates the need for an index and for researchers to review every cemetery when searching for an internment in Thurston County. Each volume includes a brief description and/or history of each cemetery.

GODFREY
HINCKLEY

Someone in Olympia has a copy of the book "History of Wolfe Island", that includes the background of my GGF Warren GODFREY and his arrival from Oldenburg, Germany during a plague. He was raised by the HINCKLEY family and married Emmeline HINCKLEY. It was the first book I read as a fledgling genealogist, and hadn't made the connection. Really need to convince a cousin that Warren wasn't born in NY.

WHERE TO FIND OHIO LAND RECORDS

Ohio entry and survey land records are at the Ohio Historical Society, 1982 Velma Avenue, Columbus OH 43211-2497. Deeds of the Western Reserve are at the Trumbull County Courthouse, Warren OH 44481. Later land records are on file with the Recorder of Deeds in the county where the land was located when bought or sold. (From the State Library of Ohio via MUSKINGUM of the Muskingum Chapter of the Ohio Genealogical Society.)

GALICIAN STUDY FOR MENNONITES ONLY??

In 1781, Franz Joseph II of Austria invited Palatine Mennonite farmers to populate the district of Austria known as Galicia. By 1880 the population had grown so much that families had emigrated to the U.S. and settled in Kansas and Minnesota. T. P. Miller, Box 2182, Jackson TN 38302 is revising and correcting earlier accounts of this migration. Records and info regarding families in this migration are sought. ROMAN CATHOLIC ANCESTOR? DON'T FORGET THAT BAPTISMAL SAINT'S NAME

Looking for that Roman Catholic ancestor without luck? He or she may not have been baptized with the name they were called all their lives. The naming system which was used, and may still be used for all I know, was that there must be a saint's name. My own paternal grandmother, product of a mixed marriage, was known all her life as Jessie May. She was baptized by the priest at St. Mary's in Appleton WI as Josephine! Was that her saint's day or was it the priest's whim? My thanks to Sr. Ella Raster at the Green Bay WI Roman Catholic Archives who found her for me.

SET SOMEONE ELSE'S HOUSE ON FIRE

The fear of destruction by fire, so prevalent in the past in Europe, was behind a concept that we refer to today as NIMBY ("not in my backyard"). This was the Floriansprinzip, or Florian's Principle. Believers prayed to St. Florian, patron saint of firemen and protector from fires: "Heiliger Sant Florian, verschon mein Haus, zund andere an!" (Holy St. Florian, spare my house, set someone else's on fire!) (Attributed to DER BLUMENBAUM 13:3, January 1996, published by the Sacramento CA German Gen Society, via Milwaukee WI Gen Sac REPORTER May 1997.

- SWEDISH AMERICAN MUSEUM CENTER The Museum Center, open since 1976, hosts a permanent exhibit, called THE DREAM OF AMERICA: AN IMMIGRANT'S JOURNEY. In addition, every six to eight weeks, the Museum presents a new cultural exhibit, often from Sweden. If you are interested in beginning to trace your Scandinavian heritage, or have already started the process and are in need of some support, or would like to share your findings with others who have similar experiences, you are invited to join the group. They want to collect family histories. Address: 5211 North Clark Street, Chicago IL 60640. Phone: 312-728-8111. There is a library. (Milwaukee Co. WI Gen Society REPORTER, May 1997.)
- EXITING NORWAY: A LIGHTER SIDE There are those who want us to believe Norwegians left their homeland for one or all of the following reasons: One was the staple food called "lutefisk" which is dried cod that is soaked in lime for preservation. Among a long list of words describing lutefisk these came to mind: inedible, a Yuletide monstrosity, an indescribable nightmare, not adapted to casual conversation, etc. Another reason was the Hardanger fiddle which, when played, drove people to near insanity. And to think that this was the main entertainment at all weddings! The last reason for exiting Norway was a concoction called "gammelost," which is an aged cheese capable of walking by itself after a certain span of time. It is also credited with winning wars as, when eaten by the winning forces prior to battle, it turned them into berserkers! (Milwaukee WI Gen Society REPORTER credited to member David L. Johnson of Huron OH.)
- FILBY'S PASSENGER AND IMMIGRATION INDEX If you discover a reference to your family in Filby's Passenger and Immigration Index it is possible to get a copy of the original source. The Burton Historical Collection in the Detroit Public Library, 5201 Woodward Ave., Detroit MI 48202, maintains all sources indexed in Filby's. You must cite the source number. They charge $2 postage and handling, plus 20 cents per page copied. (THE SEARCHER 1996, via Great Falls Gen Soc TREASURE STATE LINES and via Northeast Washington Gen Society PIONEER BRANCHES, April 1997.)
- WILL THERE BE SOUNDEXES TO FUTURE CENSUSES? In 2002 the 1930 federal census will be released. The WPA, however, prepared soundexes for only 10 states (AL, AR, FL, GA, LA, MS, NC, SC, TN and VA) and for 7 counties each in KY and WV. No soundexes were prepared for the 1940 and 1950 censuses. Subsequent censuses were computer-generated ones, making indexes possible, but the stability of the 1960 census is being questioned. (William Dollarhide in AGLL GENEALOGY BULLETIN, Spring 1966, via Tacoma-Pierce Co Gen Society THE RESEARCHER, Spring 1997.)

EARS DON'T CHANGE

It bears repeating that the shape of one's ears is a unique characteristic which doesn't change throughout life. This is particularly useful in identifying as the same person subjects in photographs taken many years apart. (Tacoma-Pierce Co Gen Soc THE RESEARCHER, Spring 1997.) (But remember ears and noses continue to grow throughout life. Ed.)

ITALIAN RESEARCH HELPS

The Italian Government Tourist Board has a free packet of information on Italy, and pamphlets that may be helpful in researching family history. The Tourist Board's address is 630 Fifth Ave., New York NY 10111. Fax is 212-586-9249. If you are planning to visit the country, even if the date of departure is "some day," tell them. (Baton Rouge Gen and Historical Society LE BATON ROUGE.)

TRAVEL TIP: TAKE COPIES OF YOUR PASSPORT

If you plan a trip out of the country, you wouldn't think of leaving home without your passport. But what about a photocopy or two of your passport? This should slash the time it takes to get a new passport if yours is stolen. Passports are often stolen as thieves know they can get a good price for them. Make three or four copies before you travel. Carry one copy in your luggage and one on your person, but not with your actual passport. Exchange the third copy with your fellow traveler (if you have one), so if only one of you is robbed your partner will still have a copy of the passports. The fourth copy leave at home with someone you know you can contact. More time can be saved if you carry a couple of extra passport-sized photos too. Be forewarned that if you lose your passport and do not have a copy somewhere, the only way to prove your citizenship is with a picture ID and a copy of your birth certificate. Trying to describe to someone back home which box in the attic contains your birth certificate, then waiting several days for it to arrive and a new passport to be processed is not a fun way to spend a trip. Making copies of your passport may save you time and headaches! (THE SEATTLE TIMES, June 15, 1997, via BULLETIN BOARD of the Eastside Genealogical Society, Bellevue WA.)

CANADIAN GENEALOGY
INDEX

A new database on CD-ROM has recently been released by Broderbund. This database is called The Canadian Genealogy Index. Dick Eastman, author of Eastman's Online Genealogy Newsletter, says "The record layout is an excellent one for genealogists: you simply type in the last name followed by a comma and then the first name. The matching names on the CD-ROM appear almost instantly. The French names even have all the proper diacritical marks and other letters unique to that language. Once the name is displayed you can click on an icon to obtain details." (BULLETIN BOARD of the Eastside Genealogical Society.)

PARISH RECORDS OF NORWAY

The University of North Dakota has copies of the parish records of Norway, which contain 700,750 volumes of names and information on Norway. For more information contact Ms. Sandra Beidler, Director, Chester Fritz Library Special Collections, UND, Grand Forks ND 58202. (FAMILY TREE, Aug/Sept 1997.)

THE DECEASED WIFE'S SISTER

The law against marrying a deceased wife's sister, which caused so much discussion in England, grew out of the ancient tribal law forbidding a father to sell more than one daughter to the same man, when Britain was emerging from polygamy, and when for 21 shillings (the present money) a man might dismiss his wife or kill her if she would not go. As Civil Law, it was to protect the living wife, and knit tribes closer together by intermarriage. "When ecclesiastical law became supreme a misreading of some scripture text was read to put the sister of a man's wife among the prohibited degrees of relationship. This was the ACT OF 1521 (32 Henry VIII): "A man may not marry his deceased wife's sister or her daughter, but he may marry his first cousin." London Standard (Bonner County Democrat 17 Sept 1908, and via the Idaho Genealogical Society QUARTERLY.)

IMMIGRANT PURSES

The immigrants who stream into New York all have different ways of carrying money.

- The Irish immigrant carries a canvas bag in which notes and coins are crammed together.
- The Germans wear a money belt, gay and costly of embroidered chamois.
- The French and Italians carry brass tubes with screw tops wherein they keep their cash in twenty franc gold pieces.
- The Swede is sure to have an immense pocketbook of cowhide that has been handed down from father to son for generations.
- The slaves carry their money in their high boots, along with a fork and spoon. New York Press (Bonner County Democrat 17 Sep 1908, via Idaho Gen Society BULLETIN.)

RUESCH INCREASED FEES

Ruesch International has increased the fee for writing a check in Swiss Francs and other foreign currencies from $2 to $3. This is a convenient and reliable way to transfer funds from the U.S. to Europe. Write to Ruesch International, 700 Eleventh St NW, Washington DC 20001-4507, or phone (800) 424-2923 for check conversions. (THE SWISS CONNECTION via Milwaukee County WI Genealogical Society REPORTER, Feb 1997.)

BERLIN JEWISH COMMUNITY COMMEMORATED

In 1996 Berlin paid tribute to the 325th founding of its Jewish community. It was on 10 September 1671 that 50 Jewish families, expelled from Vienna, arrived in Berlin at the invitation of Friedrich Wilhelm, the "Great Elector" of Brandenburg. (TWIGS [THE WEEK IN GERMANY] via Milwaukee County WI Genealogical Society REPORTER, Feb 1997.)

"FIRED"?
LOSE YOUR JOB?

Clans throughout history rid themselves of the unwanted among them in one way more than any other. No, not by murder. That was often taboo. What they did was to set fire to the unwanted's place. They literally "fired" out the rejected person. To get "fired" from a job is an allusion to that ancient evil. (FAMILY TREE, Dec 1996/Jan 1997, via Milwaukee County WI Genealogical Society REPORTER, Feb 1997.)

THE BRITISH FAMILY TREE

According to THE FAMILY TREE, an English publication, four different races make up the British people: THE SCOTS, who keep the Sabbath and everything else they can lay their hands on; THE WELSH, who pray on their knees and on their neighbors; THE IRISH, who don't know what the devil they want, but are willing to die for it; and THE ENGLISH, who consider themselves a race of self-made men, thereby relieving the Almighty of a dread responsibility. (WESTWARD INTO NEBRASKA, February 1997.)

WHAT IS THE INTERNET?
HERE'S SOME HELP!

When people talk about the Internet, they usually forget to speak plain English. As a result it's very easy to get lost in their jargon if you don't know what all these high-tech terms mean. The following is a quick list of some common Internet terms and their meanings:

- INTERNET Term coined for the "international network" of computers all over the world, connected primarily by telephone wires. People can exchange documents and messages rapidly.
 - MODEM Turns computer data into sound patterns that telephone lines can carry. When you attach a modem to your computer you're able to send electronic messages and connect your computer to the Internet.
 - ISP Stands for "Internet Service Provider." As with long-distance phone carriers, Internet access is offered at monthly or hourly rates.
 - WORLD WIDE WEB The "multimedia" part of the Internet. Instead of words alone, the World Wide Web (WWW) displays pictures, text, animation and sounds. You navigate through the WWW by clicking points on the screen.
 - WEB SITES A set of Web pages created and updated by a specific company or individual.
 - WEB PAGE Every Web site is composed of one or more Web pages. You can think of them like pages in a magazine; each one has unique stories and pictures, but they are all bound together by a central theme or purpose.
 - BROWSER A software program that allows you to access the WWW.
 - URL Stands for "Universal Resource Locator." You can think of a URL as an address for a Web site or web page. Your browser takes you to a Web site you want to visit by searching the Internet for the site's URL.

A BAD IDEA?

Hand-shaking was prohibited in the United States in 1793. This was done because of a yellow fever epidemic in Philadelphia PA. It was thought that the practice caused the disease to spread. There were 4,000 deaths which occurred as a result of the disease. (Milwaukee County WI Genealogical Society REPORTER, Feb 1997.)

NEWS FROM THE NATIONAL ARCHIVES

The Seattle Federal Records Center, National Archives - Pacific Northwest Region and the National Archives - Alaska Region, ceased to exist 6 January 1997. They were replaced with the Pacific Alaska Region headquartered in Seattle, with a new Regional Director. To reflect these consolidated operations there will be a change in building signs, e-mail and telephone directory listings, stationery and publications. Thirteen regional archives now have been consolidated into 9 administrative entities by this NARA reorganization. (Eastside Genealogical Society BULLETIN BOARD.)

BLACK DUTCH LINEAGE

While evidence isn't conclusive, if you hear that your family is Black Dutch, there is a strong possibility that you will find someone in your family was a Sephardic (Spanish) Jew who, in fleeing from the Inquisition, intermarried with the Protestant Dutch. (WESTWARD INTO NEBRASKA, Feb. 1997.)

HOW LONG WILL YOU BE REMEMBERED?

In a national Gallup survey, 105 adults 18 years and older were asked if they knew the first names and occupations of their great-grandparents. Only 2% knew the names of all their great-grandparents, and more than 60% didn't know the names of ANY of their great-grandparents.

Only 8% knew the occupations of all of their great-grandparents...including the predictable answer of great-grandmother being a housewife. More than 40% didn't know the occupations of any of their great-grandparents.

That's why you should write your own family history! (Hemet-San Jacinto PAST FINDER via Yamhill Co Oregon TIMBER TRAILS, Vol. 17 #4.)
