NOTE FROM THE EDITOR

As you know, the publication of our Quarterly is way behind schedule, for which I extend a sincere apology to our members. Until I am caught up, you will see some "old" events listed, as well as current events. This is being done to preserve what happened during this time frame. Over the next several months I am going to attempt to get it back on schedule. If you have any queries to send in, now is a good time to do so. If your pedigree chart hasn't been published, or has had major revisions/additions since being published, send it to me also. Don't worry that it's not finished, they never are!! Jerri McCoy

Postal Information - Did You Know?

Typed envelopes will reach addresses one day earlier than those handwritten.

Postal machine scanners read envelopes from the bottom up, starting with the zip code. If anything is typed lower than the zip code, the letter will be held until it can be manually sorted. Mail will also reach its destination at least a day sooner if you use zip codes, and using the additional 4-digit number is even better.

Self-addressed stamped envelopes (SASE) folded inside a letter is a violation of postal regulations because they jam postal sorting machines. It is recommended you use a No. 9 envelope, which will fit inside the regular No. 10 business envelope without folding. Also, the post office sells a "message reply" double postal card for forty cents. If you're requesting a brief reply this is the most economical way to go.

COVER STORY

General Hazard Stevens, son of the first territorial governor Isaac Stevens, established Cloverfields Farm in 1914. The dairy sat on 260 acres, part of a claim purchased by Governor Isaac Stevens in 1853.

Stevens had come as a child of twelve to Olympia and accompanied the governor in parleys with the Indians. He later served in the Civil War where he was breveted brigadier general and awarded the Medal of Honor. After the war he served in many capacities in Washington, such as collector of Internal Revenue and commissioner to settle land claims in the San Juan Islands. He read law with Elwood Evans in Olympia, and was active in helping the Olympia Railroad Union as well. He returned in 1874 to his native Boston, and lived there until 1914 when his mother died and he came back to Olympia to found a model dairy farm called "Cloverfields."

He developed his father's claim, which extended from Capitol Way to Cain Road. As the head of Olympia Light & Power Company, he promoted the use of electricity in his dairy, which boasted an all-electric barn and milking machines. In addition, the dairy was served by the latest in equipment, including galvanized steel fixtures, concrete floors, and separate sterilizing and bottling facilities. Water was piped from an artesian well, which is still used by Olympia High School.

In 1917 Cloverfields milk was delivered for twelve cents a quart in modern delivery trucks. The Holstein dairy cattle were fed a scientifically formulated diet and tested for tuberculosis—both farsighted practices for the day.

By 1926 Cloverfields was offering milk from both Jerseys and Holsteins and receiving accolades from all fields of agriculture.

As the crowning touch to the farm, Hazard Stevens commissioned Joseph Wohleb to design a farmhouse to complement the farm. The Dutch Colonial farmhouse at 1100 Carlyon Avenue is on the National Register of Historic Places.

The entry to Cloverfields Farm is where Carlyon Avenue now meets Capitol Way.

In its day the dairy and farmhouse presented an imposing and picturesque sight set overlooking a small lake named, appropriately, Lake Hazard. Holsteins grazed and Angora goats kept the lawns about the farmhouse closely cropped.

Stevens died in 1918 in Goldendale, but his farm and dairy continued for many years under the stewardship of Kate Stevens Bates, his sister.

During the 1930's the farm was divided into housing parcels of the Mt. View Addition and Stratford Place. The barns and outbuildings were torn down in 1949 and Olympia High School was built on the site in the early 1960's.

Streets in the area of the original farm bear the names of the family and farm.

More than 24,500 names from 21 cemeteries are listed alphabetically in three soft cover, comb-bound volumes. Each listing includes the name, date of birth, date of death and any other information on the headstone. The information for all 21 cemeteries is presented in one alphabetical listing. This eliminates the need for an index and for researchers to review every cemetery when searching for an internment in Thurston County. Each volume includes a brief description and/or history of each cemetery.

EXCHANGE NOTES

By Myraleigh Farnsworth Peters

WHERE SCANDINAVIAN ROOTS RUN DEEP

The Vikings came to America in the 11th century but didn't stay. A few Swedes arrived six centuries later, founding New Sweden at the mouth of the Delaware River in 1638. But most Scandinavians who came to America arrived after the Civil War, many of them settling on farms west of the Mississippi. Today, about 12 million Americans report Scandinavian ancestry. Swedish roots are claimed by 40%; Norwegian 33%; Danish 14%, and Finnish 6%. An additional 6% classify themselves simply as Scandinavian. (From U.S. News and World Report, Nov 4, 1996, via the Eastside Gen. Society BULLETIN BOARD, Jan 1997.)

SELECTIVE SERVICE RECORDS

Seldom used records with great potential are Selective Service Records for World War I. Every male resident born between 1874 and 1900 was required to register, whether or not he had to serve in the war. There are 24,000,000 registration cards listing place of birth, race, citizenship, occupation, employer, nearest relative and marital status, all on microfilm. All Selective Service Records are held at the Archives Branch, Federal Records Center, 1557 St. Joseph Ave., East Point, GA 30044. Information is filed by state and draft board. You must provide a complete name and address. There is a fee for this service and you need the proper form. (From The Columbiana County CONNECTION, Salem, OH, June 1997.)

GERMAN CARD

The Sacramento German Genealogy Society offers "The German Card", a handy item to have with you when doing German research. Laminated, and the size and thickness of a credit card, it opens up accordion-fashion to provide 8 little pages of useful information. Around the edge is the complete German alphabet, both cursive and printed Fraktur, with upper and lower case for each alphabet. You can place each letter directly under the German script you are working on. It also has immigration information on US Census 1850-1920, German genealogy symbols, rules & codes for the Soundex system, German genealogy resources, basic German genealogical vocabulary, and dates of German civil records. Send a self addressed stamped envelope (SASE) and a check for $3.00 to Sacramento German Genealogy Society, PO Box 660061, Sacramento, CA 95866-0061. (From The Columbiana County CONNECTION, Salem, OH, June 1997.)

DOING CZECH RESEARCH?

The Czechoslovak Genealogical Society International (P.O. Box 16225, St. Paul MN 55116-0225, $14/year dues) provides form letters in Czech to send to ancestral villages, Czech/Slovak zip codes, a library reference collection, workshops and conferences, 4 newsletters a year, every two years a yearbook, and information on how to get data from Czech and Slovak archives. EGS member Rose Bodien gave a talk at a 1995 EGS meeting dealing with Czech culture and genealogical research. This program is available on tape for rental from EGS. (Write to see if available to non EGS members.) Attn: Bob Sandbo, EGS, P.O. Box 374, Bellevue WA 98009-074. (Eastside Genealogical Society BULLETIN BOARD, Jan 1997.)

WASHINGTON STATE DEATH
INDEX, AGAIN

We can't emphasize enough that we need to make our feelings known about the lack of the Washington State Death Index records. Apparently, sometime in 1993-1994 the Office of Vital Statistics switched from a mainframe computer, which could easily produce microfiche, to another computer system that does not support COM. Not only has Archives not received updated death indexes but it has also been discovered that the 1989 version cannot be duplicated legibly! It has been stated that the Washington State Archives people have written to the State Registrar on several occasions - and the issue seems to have been ignored. Write: Vital Records, ET-11, Olympia WA 98504. GOV. GARY LOCKE TAKE NOTICE!

IOWA PEOPLE TAXED TO SUPPORT OLD AGE ASSISTANCE

The Iowa Genealogical Society, 6000 Douglas St., Des Moines IA 50322, recently acquired the Old Age Assistance records for 56 counties of Iowa. The list, compiled in the 1930s, gives the names of Iowans 21-65 years of age who were subject to a tax to help to care for Iowa's elderly. One of the great features of these records is that, for each person listed, the names of the parents (including the mother's maiden name) are given. (NEWSLETTER of the Whitman County Genealogical Society, Pullman WA.)

STATEN ISLAND HISTORICAL SOCIETY

The Staten Island Historical Society has completed a two-year project to arrange and describe its research collection of family papers, business records, and organization records. The library has a book collection of 15,000 bound volumes and a 150,000 card index of biographical information, Bible records and published works on Staten Island families. Write: Chief Curator Maxine Friedman, Staten Island Historical Society, 441 Clarke Ave., Staten Island NY 10306-1198. (COPPER STATE BULLETIN, Arizona State Gen Society Spring 1996, via REPORTER of the Milwaukee Co Gen Society, Milwaukee WI, August 1996.)

INDENTURE: SERVICE NOT SERVILE

Indentured servants were frequently assumed to have been uneducated or of servile origin. Europeans who wished to emigrate but lacked money to pay the fare often agreed with a relative/friend to accompany the family and to work for them for a stated time, and signed a contract - usually for five to seven years. Many teachers were indentured and came as family tutors. (St. Louis Genealogical Society , Aug 1995, via Milwaukee Co (WI) Gen Society REPORTER, May 1996.)

NORWEGIAN
EMIGRATION/
IMMIGRATION TO U.S.

The emigration from Norway this year will be very large, according to accounts from that country, and the number of persons who are preparing to emigrate to America amounts to 20,000, being two percent of the entire population of the kingdom. From the commune of Loelag alone, which contains 5,195 inhabitants, 663 individuals are about to sail for New York. We are always glad to welcome the orderly and industrious Norwegians among us. We have no better class of immigrants. (WATERTOWN (WI) CHRONICLE, Wednesday, 24 July 1850, via Milwaukee Co (WI) Gen Society REPORTER, May 1996.)

AN IRISH
EMIGRANT /
IMMIGRANT MUST READ

With regard to Irish emigration during the Great Irish Famine read the article by Charles D. Fitzgerald in HERITAGE QUEST, Mar/Apr 1996. He notes that the trip took about five weeks, with fares ranging from $12.50 to $20 per person. High in 1847 as much as $35. He states that the family was permitted to land in New York if they had $25 cash; in Boston if they had $15, and that those who had less than $15 might be dumped on an island in the St. Lawrence River opposite one of the major Canadian cities. (Milwaukee Co (WI) REPORTER, May 1996.)

QUAKER QUERIES NEWSLETTER

You can register a free fifty-word query for your research interest in Quaker Queries, a publication that comes out as often as enough material is received to fill a 25-page issue. Twenty-five issues have been published, beginning in 1986, and all back issues are available for purchase. All are name indexed. Send for details: Ruby Simonson McNeill, P.O. Box 779, Napavine WA 98565-0779, (HERITAGE QUEST Sep/Oct 1996, via Whitman Co (WA) NEWSLETTER, Jan 1997.)

SOUNDEX TRIVIA

When making your way through many soundex entries for John Smith of New York it might help to know that there was a system for ordering these films. With common surnames such as Smith, look at entries within the given name (such as John). These were further alphabetized according to the state or county of birth of the head of the household. Thus, John Smith born in Delaware would be listed before John Smith born in New York. (ANCESTRY via THE AMERICAN ELM of the Western Mass. Gen. Soc.)

PROBATES

When writing to a courthouse for information, one should ask for the "probate packet" as opposed to a will. People often left no will but had property that was probated. (Yamhill Co. OR TIMBER TRAILS, via Greater Omaha Gen Soc WESTWARD INTO NEBRASKA.)
