Robert K. Lieding

Lt. Col. Robert Kenneth Lieding, 78, a resident of Olympia for 16 years, died Friday, Jan. 5, 1996, in Mother Joseph Care Center, Olympia. Cause of death was a result of falling at home during the recent power outage.

He was born in Sheboygan, Wis., Jan. 9, 1917, to Gustav Henry and Anna (Roessing) Lieding. He grew up in Kohler, Wisc.

He graduated from the University of Wisconsin in 1938 with an ROTC commission. He later earned a degree at Georgetown University Law School.

He married JoAnn Harrington of Madison, Wis.

Lieding entered the Army prior to World War II, serving at various infantry training bases around the United States. He was wounded in the invasion of Germany. He also served with the 7th Division during the Korean War.

He had various overseas assignments in Munich, Nuremburg and Paris, and served two tours at the Pentagon. His last military assignment was as PMS&T at Seattle University.

Lieding liked the Pacific Northwest and chose to retire here. In Olympia, he was employed by the Washington Board of Tax Appeals.

He was active in the Olympia Philately Society and was involved in genealogy research and travel.

Lieding is survived by his wife, JoAnn, Olympia; a son, Robert Jr., Nequon, Wis.; three granddaughters and two great-grandchildren.

Interment was in the Willamette National Military Cemetery.

The family suggests memorial donations be made to your favorite charity.

Arrangements are by Mills and Mills Funeral Directors, Olympia.

We are saddened by the death of our member, Bob Lieding, and we extend our sympathies to his wife JoAnn and her family. Bob chaired the 1985 OGS Seminar on German-American research, and was the Quarterly Exchange Editor during 1991-1992.

Memorials in Bob's name may be sent to our society at the regular address. A book in the area of his genealogical interests will be placed in the library as our remembrance to him.

ON THE COVER

MYSTERY PHOTO OF OLYMPIA

by Roger Easton

Often, as genealogists, we find a clue to our family's past in the form of a photo. Our task is, "What year was it?", "Who, or what does it represent?"

With the cover view of Olympia, you are offered such a challenge. First, where in Olympia is the photographer standing, and which direction is he looking? Next, by looking at several clues in the photo, can you deduce the general time frame? (Ed. note: The cover picture isn't as clear as Roger's original photo. The top sign on the building on the right says "Olympia-Grill-Rooms", and the bottom one advertises "Sales" and "Havana Cigars".)

After you have answered these questions, turn this page around for the exact time and place. (No peeking!)

The photographer was standing on 4th Street, almost exactly in front of the now Spar Cafe, looking west toward the West Side Bridge.

The tracks of the original trolley system in Olympia ran only on 4th Street and Main (Capitol Way) in the downtown area, so they may have helped you pin point the location. The only buildings still standing (but restored) are the Chamber's Block (2nd building from right with false front), and the original Mottman's Mercantile building (before George Mottman added the third story in 1911. It would be the building directly across Main Street continuing west).

If you tried to place the position by the "Court House" sign, you would not have been at the correct location of the original, about one block behind (east). This sign probably referred to the Court House Saloon.

You probably tried to deduce the time from the different conveyances, and the clothing worn by the men in the foreground. If you were successful, you came close to the date taken -- 1909.

How did you do?

The Olympia Genealogical Society announces the publication of:

Cemetery Records of Thurston County, Washington

More than 24,500 names from 21 cemeteries are listed alphabetically in three soft cover, comb-bound volumes. Each listing includes the name, date of birth, date of death and any other information on the headstone. The information for all 21 cemeteries is presented in one alphabetical listing. This eliminates the need for an index and for researchers to review every cemetery when searching for an internment in Thurston County. Each volume includes a brief description and/or history of each cemetery.

GODFREY
HINCKLEY
HOKANSON

Someone in Olympia has a copy of the book "History of Wolfe Island" that includes the background of my GGF Warren GODFREY and his arrival from Oldenburg Germany during a plague. He was raised by the HINCKLEY family and m Emmeline HINCKLEY. It was the first book I read as a fledgling genealogist, and hadn't made the connection. Really need to convince a cousin he wasn't born in New York.

EXCHANGE NOTES

By Myraleigh Farnsworth Peters

THE TREE THAT ATE
ROGER WILLIAMS

The body of Roger Williams, the 17th century religious emancipator, was "eaten by a tree." He died in 1663 and was buried in a poorly marked grave in his back yard. Fifty-six years later his coffin was accidentally broken into by a worker who was excavating nearby - his bones were still there. In 1860 workmen were ordered to exhume his bones for transfer to a more suitable tomb. Only a few badly-rusted coffin nails and scraps of rotten wood were found. No bones. BUT, the root of an apple tree lay exactly where the body should have been, and it had taken on the shape of Williams' body, from head to heels. It followed the path of least resistance, inching down the side of his head, backbone, hips and legs, molding itself to the contours of the body. The human-shaped root was removed for safekeeping and today is on display at the Rhode Island Historical Soc. in Providence. (THE SECOND BOAT, August 1985.)

WHY DIDN'T
THEY USE
SPOONS FOR THIS??

Forks never appeared on Colonial tables until after the Revolution. Knives were used both to cut food and to transport it to the mouth. Loading the wide side of a knife with food and not losing any of it must have required skill - or perhaps assistance, as per this old rhyme:

I eat my peas with honey;
I've done it all my life.
it makes the peas taste funny,
but it keeps them on my knife.

When the two-tined forks did appear, most persons continued to use knives, as they were accustomed to that method of getting food to the mouth. The transition to forks was a slow one. (THE SECOND BOAT, November 1986.)

DEFINITION OF AN "ANCESTOR"

A person who gave so little thought to how important he would be to someone someday that he didn't commit nearly enough significant acts to get himself noticed, at least not in counties with fireproof courthouses. Instead of performing stupendous momentous deeds to guarantee a place in the county history books, he just frittered his time doing dumb things like pulling up trees, or chopping them down, plodding along behind a mule or a plow, keeping his wife (or wives) pregnant or getting punctured by arrows. If he were alive today, you wouldn't invite him to a party. (Prairie Pioneer" Warren Co, IL 1993)

NON-EXISTENT RECORDS

If you wish to locate a town that no longer exists, write the U.S. Board of Geographical Names, 523 National Center, Reston, VA 22092. (From St. Clair Co Gen Soc NEWSLETTER, Vol. 16 #8, Oct. 1993)

GENEALOGICAL BEATITUDES

Blessed are the great-grandfathers who saved embarkation & citizenship papers,
For they tell when they came.
Blessed are great-grandmothers who hoarded newspaper clippings & old letters,
For these tell the story of their time.
Blessed are all grandfathers who filed every legal document,
For these provided the proof.
Blessed are the grandmothers who preserved family Bibles & diaries,
For this is our heritage.
Blessed are fathers who elect officials that answer letters of inquiry,
For to some they are the only link to the past.
Blessed are mothers who relate family tradition & legend to the family,
For one of her children will surely remember.
Blessed are relatives who fill in family sheets with extra data,
For to them we owe the family history.
Blessed is any family whose member strives for the preservation of records,
For theirs is a labor of love,

Author unknown

TOMBSTONE INSCRIPTION

Here lies a miser who lived for himself
And cared for nothing but gathering wealth
Now where he is and how he fares
Nobody knows and nobody cares
(“Prairies Pioneer”, Warren Co, IL 1993)

OLD AGE FILES

The Iowa Genealogy Society Library has recently acquired the Old Age Assistance records for 56 counties of Iowa. These records, compiled during the 1930's, list the names of Iowans 21-65 years of age subject to a tax to help care for Iowa's elderly. One of the great features of these records is that for each person listed, the names of the parents, including the mother's maiden name are given. The library is located at 6000 Douglas St. Des Moines, IA 50322. (Iowa Gen Soc NEWSLETTER, Dec. 1922)

CENTAPH

The word “Centaph” engraved on a tombstone indicates an empty grave. Usually this means that the stone was erected in memory of or to honor a person buried elsewhere. In earlier days it often indicated a person lost at sea. More recently it may denote a person killed in the service who is buried overseas. (Western MA Gen Soc, “The American Elm”, Vol. 24 #2, Summer 1995)

The 1860 Nevada census is with Utah

The 1860 Oklahoma census is with Arkansas

The 1860 Wyoming census is with Nebraska

The 1860 Colorado census is with Kansas

DID YOU HAVE AN ANCESTOR AT SEA?

If you had an ancestor at sea between 1796 and 1897, he may have applied for a Seaman's Protection Certificate to protect him from imprisonment by Great Britain and other powers. Applicants had to present proof of citizenship and pay a 25 cent fee. Every three months a list of seamen was sent to Washington showing each man's age and a physical description. For more information write to: Archives Division, National Archives and Records, Washington DC 20408. (THE FAMILY TREE via SOUTHERN QUERIES MAGAZINE and NATCHEZ TRACE NEWSLETTER, Aug 1995)

NATIONAL AR-CHIVES
PHOTOGRAPHS

If you would like an aerial photograph of a French or German ancestral village, the National Archives may be able to help. During WWII both the United States and German military took these photographs of most of the villages in France and Germany for strategic use. They still exist in the archives and are not difficult to locate unless there are several villages by the same name. Information on the cost (around $11 if both negative and a print is made, less if only an 8" x 11") and details can be obtained from the Cartographic and Architectural Branch, National Archives, 8601 Adelphi Road, College Park, MD 20740-6001 (SKCGS NEWSLETTER, Vol. 10, No 5)

VITAL STATISTICS??

Grandma and Grandpa took 11 year old granddaughter on a genealogy field trip. While all were reading death records the young girl said, "Gramma, there must have been a lot of alcoholics in those days-" "Why do you say that dear, Gramma asked. "Well, so many died of consumption.

WHERE DO YOU FIT IN???

In most organizations, 5% of the members are active; 15% are not as active but are reliable; 30% will work if asked; 50% will show up if there's food. (SKCGS NEWSLETTER, July 1995)

HARD TO READ TOMBSTONES

The best way to read those hard-to-read tombstones is with a mirror. A compact mirror or a cheap 5 x 7 one will do fine. Hold the mirror to the side of the transcription and reflect the sun's light onto it. The cross light picks up everything. It's fantastic and you don't damage the stone. Try it and you will see. I learned this trick from a fellow whose speciality is tombstone, stone-cutting and stonework. (Posted on the Internet by Nancy Sorrells, via V. Zimmerman-SKCGS NEWSLETTER, July 1995)
