When the French were tracing their ancestry, they used the standard family tree to map family lines. A three-pronged symbol imitating the tree came to represent genealogy. Because it looked somewhat like the track of a crane's foot, the symbol was called "Pied de grue" meaning "foot of the crane". That phrase has come into our language as pedigree.

ON THE COVER

BIGELOW HOUSE MUSEUM OPEN

Olympia's historic Bigelow House, an important piece of Washington's territorial history, is now open to the public as a living museum. Built in the 1850s by pioneer lawyer Daniel Richardson Bigelow and his schoolteacher wife Ann Elizabeth, this gothic-revival style home offers visitors a wonderful glimpse of how life was lived in Olympia more than a century ago.

Generous support from the City of Olympia, the State Legislature, and hundreds of private donors made it possible for the nonprofit Bigelow House Preservation Association to purchase the house and restore it to the way it might have looked in territorial times. Elaborately detailed porches, as well as the central twin-tower chimney, have been reconstructed as they appear in the oldest known photograph of the house. Authentic Victorian wallpaper patterns have been used to approximate the actual patterns once found in the Bigelow House.

So put yourself in a historic mood -- turn back the clock one hundred years and imagine approaching the house as you would have in Daniel Bigelow's day. Step onto the porch and inside for a very special experience.

Volunteer guides from the community will accompany you through the restored rooms, rich with stories to tell. You'll see the law desk that Daniel carried west in his ox-cart, the land grant documents signed by Abraham Lincoln and Andrew Johnson, the chair where Susan B. Anthony once sat. You'll hear how Washington women first won, then lost, then won the right to vote, and how Daniel Bigelow helped Washington break away from Oregon Territory.

The grand opening of the Bigelow House Museum was on September 17, 1995. The Museum is open on Saturdays and Sundays from noon to 4:00 p.m. General admission is $3.00; children under 18, $1.00. The museum is located at 918 Glass Avenue NE. Parking is along East Bay Drive and on Glass Street; handicapped parking and access via Bigelow Avenue NE.

For more information call Marsha Anderson, museum director, 866-1593

(Our thanks to the City of Olympia, Community and Media Relations Office, for permission to use this article and the photos on the cover.)

NEW HISTORIC RESOURCES NOW AVAILABLE

The Olympia Heritage Commission has two new publications. The Southeast Olympia self-guided walking tour brochure features historical residential history about the area south of the freeway bridge. Copies of the walking tour brochure are available at Olympia City Hall, Smith Building, Olympia Advance Planning and Historic Preservation Office, State Capital Museum and the State Capitol Visitor Center. Four other self-guided walking tour brochures of Olympia neighborhoods are also available at those same locations. They feature the Westside Neighborhood, Downtown Neighborhood, the Bigelow Neighborhood, and the South Capitol Neighborhood.

Another new publication is designed to help owners of historic homes identify and maintain the historic features of their homes. The publication, "Identifying and Keeping the Historic Character of Your Home," is available at the above locations.

These brochures were produced with grants from the Washington State Office of Archaeology and Historic Preservation, and the Department of Community Trade and Economic Development. For more information on these publications or the City of Olympia Historic Preservation program, call 786-5745.

EXCHANGE NOTES

By Myraleigh Farnsworth Peters

SURNAMES DYING OUT

Only 20% of the surnames used still exist after 13 generations. Ninety percent of all family names from the 1700s are now extinguished. In 1974 the Social Security Administration had 1,285,556 different surnames on file, of which 448,663 had only one occurrence. Over 5,000 surnames of the knightships mentioned in the Domesday Book of 1086 have died out. (THE REPORTER, Tacoma-Pierce Co Gen Soc, Summer 1995, from DIE POMMERSHEN LEUTE (no date given) via THE TREE CLIMBER and COPPER STATE BULLETIN.)

SEMPER PERSISTIS CALIFORNIA RECORD RESTRICTION

California Assembly Bill 3170, which was introduced by Grace Napolitano to restrict access to the state's vital records, was narrowly defeated. This bill was defeated not once, but twice. While Grace Napolitano's first try to restrict access to California Vital Records, was defeated - she's been at it again. A hearing of the Committee on Health was held on 28 March 1995. AB161 was heard with new amendments presented and this bill passed the Committee. Amendment 1 added the wording "if known" to the first three categories of requirements for access to documents, this also, allows access to indexes. Requirements to obtain records are the registrant's name, place and date of registered event. It adds tougher requirements for identification of the applicant which includes a driver's license or state identification card. The second amendment adds grand-parent, grandchild and spouse to the list of persons allowed to obtain an official certificate. There will be at least one more amendment which will eliminate some processes and add some anti-counterfeit features to the certificates. If you would like more details you can order a copy of the bill. Write the Bill Room, State Capitol, Sacramento CA 95814 or call 916-445-2645. (JOURNAL of the Orange Co CA Gen Soc April 1995.)

WISCONSIN LAND INDEX BEFORE 1908

University of Wisconsin - Green Bay Area Research Center has recently acquired a CD-ROM that indexes land patents dated before 1908. Information includes individuals' names and/or Legal descriptions purchasing date, number of acres and location of land. (Fox Valley WI Gen Soc GENEALOGICAL GEM, Summer 1995.) No information for out of area requests or availability of the CD-ROM, but IT EXISTS.

SEATTLE ROOM AT SEATTLE PUBLIC LIBRARY

The main branch of the Seattle Public Library has opened "The Seattle Room" which contains The Seattle Collection, the published record of the community from explorers journals and biographies, to maps, etc. There are 6,000 volumes on open shelves and there's a copy machine in the area. (Seattle Gen Soc BULLETIN, Summer 1995.)

TIPS FOR THE RESEARCHER

1. ALWAYS send a self-addressed stamped envelope.
 2. Ask for only one family, not all the surnames in your file.
 3. Give some specific information to help the person to know for whom you are looking.
 4. When someone answers your request say "thank you".
 5. Always be courteous in a letter as well as in person.
 6. Offer to pay for any and all expenses incurred.
 7. If you write to a historical society offer to add your family history to their files.
 8. ALWAYS, ALWAYS give the person time to answer before firing off another letter. There may be a reason for their not sending a response in the next mail. Be patient.
- (Texarcana USA QUARTERLY, Texarcana USA Gen Soc, Texarcana TX)

NEW NATF FORM 80

If you plan to send to the National Archives for Military Pension you will need the new NATF Form 80. It can be ordered from General Reference Branch (NNRG-P), National Archives and Records Administration, 7th and Pennsylvania Ave. NW, Washington DC 20408. The new form has a place to designate credit card payment at the time the record is found. Previously you had to wait weeks for a reply that the record was found, send payment, and then wait weeks again. (Summit Co OH Chapter of Ohio Gen Soc, Feb 1995, via Marin Co CA KIN TRACER, Vol 18 #2, and others.)

HELPFUL HINT

Reduce thickness of a letter by folding pages individually instead of all together. Works for four or more pages. (Marin County KIN TRACER, as above.)

QUAKER SOURCES

The Swarthmore-Haverford-Bryn Mawr joint library catalogue can be viewed via Internet (tripod.brynmawr.edu). Swarthmore and Haverford house major Quaker collections which do not, for the most part, duplicate each other. Earlham College in Richmond IN, and Guilford College in Greensboro NC, house several other substantial collections. (Quaker researchers should check the many listings of Quaker record repositories in the Genealogist's Address Book at both the Tacoma Public Library and the Family History Center.) (BLUEGRASS ROOTS via Tacoma-Pierce County Gen Soc, THE RESEARCHER, Spring 1995.)

WOULD YOU SAY THAT AGAIN?

Brigadier General Wlodzimierz Krzyzanowski organized the New York Volunteer Infantry or "Polish Legion" during the Civil War. He fought bravely at Bull Run, Gettysburg and Chancellorsville. Yet he was twice passed over for promotion because no one in the US Senate could pronounce his name! (POLISH AMERICAN JOURNAL, Nov 1994, via the Milwaukee County WI Gen Soc REPORTER, Feb 1995.)

WEAPONS THROUGH THE MAIL?

Do your bulletins and newsletters draw blood all along the way? Do they suffer (as do those along the way handling them) from too much staple for the job? Make sure that you aren't sending small weapons through the mail Staples that are too long curl back and emerge again near the point of staple entry. SHARP! SHARP! SHARP!

BUSINESS LICENSES AND OTHER BUSINESS RECORDS

Business licenses are among the public records and are mostly overlooked for genealogical purposes. Most cities required the name and address of the business and the name of the proprietor. Other information which might be found would be the name of the proprietors wife, his partners and possibly a home address. Other business records include sales mortgages and recorded debts. Some records may exist which may prove that your ancestor "owed his soul to the company store". Many of these old records can be found in archives. For examples if your ancestor was a coal miner you may find his records in the Eastern Regional Coal Archives in Bluefield WV. In Louisiana some of these are among the norotial records housed in the Historic New Orleans collection. (KIN TRACER of the Marin County CA Gen Soc, No 3, 1995, from KINFOLKS of the SW Louisiana Gen Soc, Vol 19 No 1, 1995.)

CIVIL WAR DRAFT RECORDS

The National Archives has the draft records of the Civil War. They were created in accordance with the Congressional Act of 3 March 1663. They include the consolidated lists of the Washington Office and the descriptive rolls of the enrollment districts. You need to know the Congressional district where the soldier resided. If unknown check the "Congressional Directory for the Second Session of the Thirty-eighth Congress of the USA", Washington, 1865. A photocopy is available in the Military Archivist Room, 11W. The Civil War draft records are in Record Group 110, Records of the Provost Marshall General's Bureau, 1663-1666. (From the KANSAS GENEALOGIST, Winter 1994, via Milwaukee County WI Gen Soc, REPORTER, Feb. 1995.)

GALICIAN
GERMANS Are you of German descent from Galicia ? At last a "Germans from Galicia" group is being organized on a national level. Contact Don Mueller, 536 Macon Drive, Bismark ND 59504; or, Evelyn Wolfer, 12367 SE 214th St, Kent WA 96031-2215. (Bismark-Mandan Historical and Gen Soc, THE DAKOTA HOMESTEAD, Dec 1994.)

TO PONDER
UPON "It is indeed a desirable thing to be well descended, but the glory belongs to our ancestors." (PLUTARCH, "On Ancestors")

"The only immortality any of us will have lies in our children, and their children, and how they describe us to future generations." (MARCUS TULLIUS CICERO, 106-43 B.C.)

OLDIE BUT
GOODIE "Ran away from Josiah Woodbury, Cooper, his House Plague for 7 long years, Masury Old Moll, alias Trial of Vengeance. He that lost will never seek her; he that shall keep her, I will give two Bushels of Beans. I forewarn all Persons in Town or Country from trusting said Trial of Vengeance. I have hove all the old (Shoes) I can find fur Joy; and all my neighbors rejoice with me. A good Riddance of bad Ware. Amen." JOSIAH WOODBURY (ESSEX GAZETTE, Beverly MA, Sept. 16, 1771. via THE SECOND BOAT, May 1987.)

INDECENT
DESCENT I've traced back now to Henry I:
My royal line I've mastered.
But I can't boast about it for
I come down through his bastard.
(Richard E. Coe, via THE SECOND BOAT, May 1986.)
