ON THE COVER

CITY OF TUMWATER SESQUICENTENNIAL 1845 TO 1995

The Founding of Tumwater

After crossing the 1,930 mile Oregon Trail in 1844, Michael Simmons led a party of 31 settlers to begin a new community on the Deschutes River. Arriving in October, 1845, they named their new home New Market.

This land was then Oregon country, claimed by both Great Britain and the United States. The British Hudson's Bay Company had a trading post at Ft. Nisqually, which was approximately 10 miles north. An Indian encampment was located along the water in the area that is now Tumwater Historic Park.

The Hudson's Bay Company and the Indians helped the settlers survive their first winter. In the spring, the families left the 16' x 16' communal cabin to begin claiming land. This early settlement helped strengthen the United States claim to the region that would eventually become Washington Territory.

In time, the New Market name was changed to "Tumwater", a modification of a Chinook jargon term for "water fall".

The opening ceremonies for the Tumwater Sesquicentennial were held at the Tumwater City Hall on Saturday, February 11, 1995. Special events will occur throughout the year.

The Olympia Genealogical Society announces the publication of:

Cemetery Records of Thurston County, Washington

More than 24,500 names from 21 cemeteries are listed alphabetically in three soft cover, comb-bound volumes. Each listing includes the name, date of birth, date of death and any other information on the headstone. The information for all 21 cemeteries is presented in one alphabetical listing. This eliminates the need for an index and for researchers to review every cemetery when searching for an internment in Thurston County. Each volume includes a brief description and/or history of each cemetery.

LOUISIANA FILING CABINET FIND

Some very early West Baton Rouge Parish, Louisiana, records have been discovered in a filing cabinet thought for 30 years to be empty. Included are marriage and baptismal records, land and slave conveyances, tax-assessment rolls and oaths of office.

VERY EARLY BATON ROUGE RECORDS

These significant parish (county) records date variously from 1807 to 1699 - Louisiana's territorial government was established in 1804, following the Louisiana Purchase in October of 1803; Louisiana became a state in 1812. The Louisiana State Archives will microfilm this collection, and later special arrangements to view the originals can be made with the parish's clerk of the court. (BULLETIN of the Seattle Gen Soc, Winter 1994/95.)

GERMAN, SWISS RECORDS IN CHICAGO

If searching for ancestors of German or Swiss heritage in Chicago in the 1883-1910 period, one source could be the 10,000 applications to the German (Aid) Society of Chicago (Deutsch Gesellschaft). A few records of the Swiss Benevolent Society of Chicago are also included in the German Group's records.

Included are applications for assistance and case histories, which include the applicant's name, address, age, family relationships, occupation, length of time in the U.S., and place of origin.

The collection is in the University of Chicago Library's Special Collections section. That is the good news. The bad news is that the library can not do research for you or respond to written requests. You must search the collection yourself, or ask/hire someone in the Chicago area to do it for you. (FGS FORUM via BULLETIN of the Seattle Gen Soc, Winter 1994/95.)

QUICK!
BEFORE THEY'RE GONE!

A slice of America's history has become as unreadable as Egyptian hieroglyphics before the discovery of the Rosetta Stone. More historic, scientific and business data is in danger of dissolving into a jumble of letters, numbers and computer symbols. Americans paid billions to collect information and may now have to fork over millions more to preserve it. That is part of the price for the country's eager embrace of more and more powerful computers.

Much information from the last 30 years is stranded on computer tape from primitive or discarded systems which are unintelligible or soon to be so. As a result, hundreds of thousands of Americans researching family history - the largest use of the National Archives - will find fascinating records of their relatives beyond reach. Detection of a disease or environmental threat or shift in social class could be delayed because data was lost before researchers even knew what questions to ask.

A number of records are lost or out of reach. A total of 200 reels of 17-year-old Public Health Service computer tapes were destroyed in 1990 because no one could find out what the names and numbers on them meant.

The most extensive record of Americans who served in World War II exists only on 1,600 reels of microfilm or computer punch cards. As the 50th anniversary of Pearl Harbor approaches (now past, 1991) no manpower, money or machine is available to return the data to a computer so ordinary citizens could trace the war history of their relatives.

Census data from the 1960s exists on thousands of reels of old tape. Some may have decomposed; others may fall apart if run through the equipment which survives from that era. Since 1960 the Census Bureau has changed computers and tape drives five times - and how many more now in 1995. There are 4,000 tapes that weren't copied. The tapes include parts of the 1960, 1970 and 1980 censuses. (Tulsa Gen Soc's TULSA ANNALS, Vol XXX No. 1, Fall 1994-95, via FOOTPRINTS of the Ft. Worth TX Gen Soc, Vol 38 #1.)

GERMANS IN RUSSIA -
THE GERMAN PROTESTANT CHURCH

LDS in Salt Lake has 135 new microfilms about Germans in Russia. The German Protestant Church (Evangelische Kirche) of Russia was organized into several consistories and headquartered in St. Petersburg. The new microfilms contain 274 volumes of the consistories' church record transcripts stored at the Russian State Historical Archives. These records are from German settlements in Ingermanland (the area near St. Petersburg), the Black Sea, Bessarabia and the Crimea for the years 1833 to 1885. The films are listed in the Subject section of the FHL Catalogue under Germans, Russia, Church Records and Registers. (THE FAMILY TREE Feb/March 1995.)

"YOU" DIDN'T
WRITE IT YOURSELF

When the census taker came to the door for information, YOU DIDN'T WRITE IT YOURSELF! This holds true whether the topic is naturalization papers, marriage licenses or the census. The officer in charge asked questions and wrote down the answers as he chose to spell them. With the census, most probably he took notes and then sat down with the big books and made a "clean copy". This gave them a chance to misread their own handwriting and turn Eli into Ella, or worse. In 1850, 60, and 70, the census taker then made a second copy so the state and the federal government each had one. Legibility sometimes varies as a person changed pens took a break, etc. Occasionally the second copy is in a totally different handwriting. (WINNEBAGOLAND ROOTS of the Winnebago Land Gen Soc, Mar 1995)

WOUNDED
CONFEDERATE SOLDIERS

The Confederate Descendant's Society has made information available for about 15,000 wounded soldiers. Write CDS, PO Box 2133, Athens GA 35611 or Rare Collection, c/o T. K. Kennedy, PO Box 355, Braddock Heights MD 21702. Don't forget your SASE. (The FAMILY TREE from Fore-Kin Trails Gen Soc NEWSLETTER.)

DID THE YEAR WITHOUT A SUMMER MAKE YOUR FAMILY MOVE?

As a result of the eruption of the Tamboro Volcano in Java in 1815, 12,000 island residents lost their lives. The volcano is also probably to blame for an unusual weather pattern the following year in North America, resulting in mass migrations of people trying to avoid the ensuing climatic anomalies.

The summer of 1816 was unusually cold, with killing frosts and even snowfall destroying newly planted crops throughout the United States. June and July were the coldest months - 19 states had snow in June. There were no fall harvests; animals and people starved; wild animals ravaged the frontier. By 1817 the climate had returned to normal. However, many had moved to warmer parts of the country, and numerous farmers had left for the cities to go into industrial work.

If you have no explanation for why your ancestor may have migrated, or you can't determine exactly when it happened, just "sometime" around 1815-1820, consider that this event may have been the cause. (Jefferson County Gen Soc NEWSLETTER, Jefferson City, IN, via THE FAMILY TREE.)

OH MY

WASHINGTON COUNTY OHIO
CENSUS EXISTS

The 1800-1810 Census, Washington Co, OH, does exist. Long thought lost it has been filmed on Family History Library film #940/916. The original enumerator's copy is at Marietta OH. (THE FAMILY TREE)

OHIO LAND RECORDS: FREE SEARCH FOR FEDERAL LAND
GRANT RECORDS

In Ohio, Land Office Records research services are free of charge. Thomas E. Ferguson, the Auditor of State, considers such services a taxpayer service. Copies are provided at cost.

To begin your search: If you have early Ohio ancestors who may have received their land from the federal government write to the Auditor, who will search the index of land patents and record books for original entries under the surname you provide. The service is free but please provide long SASE. Give your ancestor's full name possible location and date. Send requests to PO Box 1140, Columbus OH 43216-1140.

It takes about six weeks for a reply. Sources are cited if information is found. You will be referred to the proper Federal agency to secure a copy of the land entry file and original patent. Please limit your request for one surname per letter. (NUGGETS FROM PARADISE, Paradise CA Gen Soc, via THE FAMILY TREE, Feb/Mar 1995.)

TEXAS HAD TWO DAWSON COUNTIES

There have been two counties in TEXAS named DAWSON. The first was located where parts of KINNEY and UVALDE counties are now located, thus persons searching the 1860 census for those two counties should also see (old) DAWSON county. The second DAWSON county still exists and its first census was taken in 1680. (TEXARCANA USA of the Texarcana (TX) USA Gen Soc, Spring/Summer 1994.)

CONFEDERATE EXILES IN BRAZIL

About 3500 Southerners fled to Brazil between 1666 and 1890. Nearly 3000 couldn't adapt and returned to the U.S. by the turn of the century. Most of those immigrants who remained moved to Americana, Brazil, where their descendants still live. In a graveyard at nearby Santa Barbara D'Oeste, about 400 Confederate settlers and their offspring are buried. (As above, from the CHICAGO TRIBUNE, 3 Jan 1991.)

THE EXTRA CHILD

"Somewhere", where there was a radio program on genealogy, a woman called the station and told of finding 7 names in a family record when she knew that there were only 6 children. She spent time, money and trips tracing down "Rebecca", the last name on the list. Found out it was the family cow. (VA MAGAZINE OF HISTORY & BIOGRAPHY via Idaho Gen Soc QUARTERLY, Jan 1995.)

GALVESTON TX:
GERMAN AND EASTERN EUROPEAN IMMIGRANT DATA

The port of Galveston Texas tends to be overlooked by researchers who are looking for German and East European immigrants between 1840 and 1920. The Galveston Historical Foundation has put together a computer data base that lists about 150,000 names. Many entries include country of origin, age, sex and occupation, as well as the ship's name and date of arrival and port of departure. The entries are for the years 1846-1871 and 1896-1921. Visitors to the Texas Seaport Museum can access the data base easily, or a printout may be obtained by mail. A $10.00 fee per name must accompany a search request. The mailing address is 2016 Strand, Galveston Island TX 77550. Phone: 409-763-1877. (NEW MEXICO GENEALOGIST, March 1990.)

SCHOOL
YEARBOOKS AND GENEALOGICAL LIBRARY IN MARYSVILLE

The owner of the 3rd ST BOOK EXCHANGE in Marysville has announced that there is a genealogical library located upstairs in her bookstore. There is no charge for use of the library, and at present there are more than 2,000 volumes in her library. She has yearbooks representing 800 schools and her complete list of yearbooks can be found in our file under WA, in the general file. Among her books can be found personal biographies, city directories and published state or city histories.

ADOPTION RECORDS

Adoption records are often filed in county record books under "IN RE". Ask the clerk to see the records of probate or divorce; never mention that you are looking for an adoption. Then turn to the "In" and under "In Regards to" you will often find name changes and petitions for adoption filed in alphabetical order. Anything that the clerk wishes to hide from the public might be found there. (ANCESTORS UNLIMITED, SW Nebraska Gen Soc, Vol 18 No 4, Winter 1994, via KIN TRACER of the Marin Co CA Gen Soc, Vol 18 No 3, 1995.)

INDIANA
MARRIAGE INDEX
THROUGH 1850

The Indiana State Library has now completed its statewide "Index to Indiana Marriages through 1850". The file, arranged alphabetically by both bride and groom, was extracted from courthouse records, from listings appearing in "Abstract of the Records of the Society of Friends of Indiana" by Willard Heiss, and from marriages noted in St. Francis Xavier Parish Church, Vincennes. Records were not available for the following counties: Clay, Jasper, Madison, Noble, and part of Sullivan. Write the Indiana State Library, 140 N Senate Ave, Indianapolis IN 46204, (Tacoma-Pierce Co Gen Soc THE RESEARCHER via KIN TRACER of the Marin Co CA Gen Soc, Vol 18 No 3, 1995.)
