Searching American Probate Records by Fran Carter is a slim volume packed with information. These records are a great resource when you are stuck.

The Antwerp Emigration Index by Charles M. Hall and Heritage International. This index deals with individuals or groups migrating out of central Europe from Germany, France, Switzerland, Italy, the Netherlands, Belgium and other such countries during the year 1855.

Welsh Family History: A Guide to Research, edited by John Rowlands et al. This contains a bibliography and is indexed. 942.429 Welsh F 1994

Some Virginia Marriages: Volume I: 1700-1799

 Volume II: 1800-1850

 Compiled by Cecil D. McDonald, Jr. 975.5 McDonald 1973

A complete set (vols. 1-19) of Our French-Canadian Ancestors, by Thomas J. Laforest has been donated to the genealogy department. They are now on the shelf and ready to use. Volume I is the revised edition.

The Olympia Genealogical Society
announces the publication of:

Cemetery Records of Thurston County, Washington

More than 24,500 names from 21 cemeteries are listed alphabetically in three soft cover, comb-bound volumes. Each listing includes the name, date of birth, date of death and any other information on the headstone. The information for all 21 cemeteries is presented in one alphabetical listing. This eliminates the need for an index and for researchers to review every cemetery when searching for an internment in Thurston County. Each volume includes a brief description and/or history of each cemetery.

(Genealogical Society of North Central Washington APPLELAND BULLETIN, March 1994. Submitted by R. H. Hurst)

LAW OF PRIMOGENITURE

This law pertains to a custom practiced in early Colonial America between 1607 and the mid-1789's. It allows for the exclusive right of the eldest son to inherit the entire real property of a deceased father. For the genealogist, this can cause problems as a father may not list his eldest son in his Will, because of the knowledge that the property would be passed on to the son at the time of the father's death. After 1780, most states stopped the practice, except for a few southern states where it continued until the early 1800's. In VA the eldest son would inherit the homestead and all real estate if the father died without a will. In many wills a father disregarded the rules of primogeniture and divided his property among all his children, including his daughters. Inheritance laws often varied from time to time and locality. Those doing research should be aware of possible variances based on the geographical region and the time period being researched. (TRI-COUNTY RESEARCHER, April 1994, from Lower Delmarva Genealogical Society, Fall 1993.)

ELLIS ISLAND INFORMATION

There is now a computer printout of information from Ellis Island. Write for information: Statue of Liberty, Ellis Island Foundation Inc., 52 Vanderbilt Ave., New York NY 10017-3808. (Northwest Washington Genealogical Society PIONEER BRANCHES, July 1994, from APPLE ORCHARD NEWSLETTER, Apr/May 1994.)

TEXAS DEATH RECORD ACCESS CLOSURE

Texas Death Records are now closed to the public. This legislation was enacted because of the possibility that illegal aliens were using these records to establish fake identifications. (East Texas Gen Society via Adams County Gen Soc (NE) LEAFY BRANCHES via Bismark-Mandan Historical and Gen Society DA-KOTA HOMESTEAD, June 1994.)

WISCONSIN 1855 STATE CENSUS INDEX

The Northwoods (WI) Genealogical Society has indexed the 1855 State Census of WI. Included are surname, number of persons in the household, city and county of residence, and any other information on the original record. You may secure a copy of the index for a surname by sending $2.00 plus a long SASE to: Sue Swanson, 219 Harmony Hills, Rhinelander WI 54501. (The Odum Library FAMILY TREE, June/July 1994.)

DON'TS WHEN USING CENSUS RECORDS

Easy to use! What could go wrong? Plenty!! for both the beginning and experienced researcher.

- *Don't believe census indexes to be either correct or complete.
- *Don't assume the spelling of the name is as you now it now.
- *Don't assume the relationship to the head of the household is as is.
- *Don't assume the ages given provide a birth year.
- *Don't forget to copy ALL info at top of page, as well as data to the right.
- *Don't forget all entries for your surname in the county; better look at the neighbors too. Four Smiths in a row with Jones could mean a married daughter and family.
- *Don't think records before 1850 can't help; only one name listed at least you'll know how many to look for - for a whole family.
- *Don't think census data gives all the answers.
- *Don't forget 1860 plus records when you're stuck in the early 1660's.
- *Don't forget 1890 veterans census if your ancestor was in the military.
- *Don't forget about the state census records.

(From the TREE CLIMBER, October 1992 via Grant Co Gen Soc BIG BEND REGISTER, June 1993.)

WISCONSIN: SOME VERY EARLY WINNEBAGO COUNTY RECORDS ELSEWHERE

If you are looking for probate files (or any other type of court records) of pre-1848 Winnebago County residents, and you don't find any records in Winnebago County, you may need to look to either Brown or Fon du Lac Counties. Winnebago County was established in 1838, and organized for county purposes in 1840; however, it was attached to Brown County for judicial purposes from 1840-1844, and to Fon du Lac County from 1844 to 1847. That means that the courts were under Brown (1840-1844) and Fon du Lac (1844-1847) jurisdictions at those times jmd you would need to look for any court records created during those time periods at those two courthouses. In the case of the Brown County probate and court records of this period they have been transferred to the Area Research Center at the University of Wisconsin-Green Bay Cofrin Library. Both the indexes and original court and probate records are available. (WINNEBAGOLAND ROOTS, June 1994, WinnebagoLand Genealogical Society, Oshkosh WI.)

TERMS USED IN FRENCH-CANADIAN RECORDS

(FRENCH CANADIAN/ACADIAN GEN SOC OF WISCONSIN QUARTERLY, Vol 8 No 2, Nov 1993, via Fox Valley Gen Society GENEALOGICAL GEMS, Vol 13 No 1, Summer 1994.)

FRENCH CANADIAN COLLECTION AT BROWN COUNTY WI LIBRARY

The French Canadian collection at the Brown County Library in WI has added 250+ volumes on French Canadian research. This brings the collection to over 400 volumes. The volumes focus on Quebec Province parishes. They also have 20 books on French Canadian immigrants along with data on New England communities. No city location given for the library. You would need to research that. (From GEMS OF GENEALOGY published by the Bay Area WI Genealogical Society, May/June 1994, via the Milwaukee County Genealogical Society REPORTER of Aug 1994.)

DID YOU KNOW?

Among the Pennsylvania Germans it was customary to bury all of a married woman's marriage records with her in order to show the Lord that this was a properly married woman. (FAMILY TREE, Aug/Sep 1994.)

GRETNA GREENS IN THE U.S.

Gretna Green was the expression used to describe a "no questions asked" marriage locale. The original Gretna Green was a village in the south of Scotland, near the English border. It was to this village that English couples eloped. In the United States, Washington County in Pennsylvania, and Cincinnati OH were known as Gretna Greens. A minister from Maysville, KY, ran a ferry boat on the Ohio River between Maysville and Aberdeen OH. He would pick up couples (who didn't have marriage licenses) in Maysville, ferry them across the river to the Ohio shore and marry them. The name of his ferry: The Gretna Green. (Milwaukee County Genealogy Society REPORTER, August 1994, attributed to ANCESTRY, January 1993.)

GALICIAN
GRAPEVINE,
AUSTRIA -
HUNGARIAN EMPIRE

Are there Galician Mennonites among those you are researching? They would be immigrants to Canada, the U.S. and Uruguay from the Crownland of Galicia (Klempolen in German), in the 1880s. The ancestral villages centered around Lemberg (Lvov). You can write to: Glen Linscheid, P. O. Box 194, Butterfield MN 56120. Phone: (507) 956-5815. (Milwaukee County Genealogical Society REPORTER, August 1994.)

ON MUSTACHES AND BEARDS

Gentlemen who pride themselves on their luxuriant beards will take comfort in knowing that the mustache is a natural respirator, defending the lungs against the inhalation of cold and dust. It is a protection of the face and throat against cold and is equally in warm climates a safeguard for those parts against excessive heat. The mustaches of blacksmiths show by their color the dust which they stop as a natural respirator, and which, if inhaled, would be injurious. The mustache is beneficial to those who follow the trades of millers, bakers, masons, to workers in metal, etc. Full beards are said to be a defense against bronchitis and sore throats. It is asserted that the sappers and miners of the French Army, who are noted for the size and beauty of their beards, enjoy a special immunity from affections of this nature. The growth of hair has been recommended to persons liable to take cold easily. (Attributed to an 1873 News Source/Owen County IN NEWSLETTER, via the Livingstone County Genealogical Society's NEWSLETTER Spring 1993, and then via the Milwaukee Genealogical Society REPORTER, August 1994.)

ILLINOIS VITAL RECORDS OPEN AGAIN

According to THE FAMILY TREE, a publication of Georgia's Odum Library, a change in state law has opened the records for genealogical purposes only. Birth records sought must be more than 75 years old and death records more than 20 years old; proof of relationship, once required, no longer is needed. Also, indexes prior to 1916, once open only to Illinois residents, are not available to all. (SEATTLE GEN SOCIETY BULLETIN, Summer 1994.)

NEW YORK
PASSENGER LISTS ADDED TO SEATTLE ARCHIVES

The Pacific Northwest Region of the National Archives has acquired all 675 rolls of microfilm for New York for the 1820-1897 period. It has had the 1820-1846 index for some time but not the actual lists. No index has been prepared for the 1847-1897 period. There are indexes for 1897-1902 and 1902-1943 at the regional facility. There are also indexes for Baltimore 1897-1952 and Boston from 1902-1906. (SEATTLE GEN SOCIETY BULLETIN, Summer 1994)

VOL. XXI, NO. 1, JANUARY 1995

SOUNDEX TRIVIA

When making your way through many soundex entries for John Smith of New York, it might help to know that there was a system for ordering them. With common surnames (such as Smith), the entries within a given name grouping (such as John) were further alphabetized according to the state or country of birth of the head of household. Thus, John Smith born in Delaware would be listed before John Smith born in New York. ("1900 Census Soundex" by Kathi Sittner, ANCESTRY Jan-Feb 1994, via the Tacoma-Pierce County Gen Soc THE RESEARCHER, Summer 1994.)

ILLINOIS LANDS

The Illinois Archives now has a computerized listing of 550,000 names of people who appear on Illinois Public Domain Land Records with all pertinent facts regarding purchase of such land. Send inquiries to the Illinois State Archives, Archives Building, Springfield IL 60201, OR look at the Tacoma Public Library for these same records on 144 fiche with Dewey decimal number 977-3/ST29S, per Librarian Mary Gorham. (Tacoma-Pierce County RESEARCHER, Summer 1994, from ANCESTORS UNLIMITED of NE Gen Society via BULLETIN of the Eastern Washington Gen Society March 1994.)

ROMAN REASON

"Not to know what happened before we were born is to remain perpetually a child. For what is the worth of human life unless it is woven into the life of our ancestors." (Marcus Tullius Cicero, 106 BC to 45 BC via FAMILY TREE of the Odum Library.)
