COVER STORY

by Roger Easton

Isaac I. Stevens, first Territorial Governor of Washington, was appointed by President Franklin Pierce. He arrived in Olympia after crossing the continent, on a drizzly Saturday evening in November of 1853. According to Gordon Newell, "Both were small, muddy, rain-soaked and far from fragrant." George Blankenship, local historian, gives this account of Steven's arrival in Olympia: "Great preparations were made for the Governor's reception. He arrived ahead of his party and in an unostentatious way asked for admission to the dining room (of the town's only hotel). He was informed that there was no time to lose on strangers, as they were getting ready for a great doin's'. Saying he was hungry, Stevens asked for a snack in the kitchen, which was furnished him. He then went outside where he met a stranger, who complained that the governor was late in arriving. "Why I am the man you are looking for", said Stevens. this announcement, made by the small travel-stained man was enough. The arrival was announced by vigourous beating on a circular saw hung from a post, and the first gubernatorial reception was fairly on."

Stevens was a Major in the U.S. Army when appointed as Territorial Governor. After his term of office, he returned to the army, reaching the rank of Brigadier General. In the summer of 1862, he died a hero's death leading troops at Chantilly, during General Pope's army's retreat from Bull Run. He was 44 years of age.

An ironic aside, this imposing and very forceful man was very sensitive about his 5 foot stature. In fact, in most existing portraits he is seated. If others are also pictured, they would be standing around him. His desk, which is quite tiny, may be seen in Secretary of State, Ralph Munro's office.

NEW YORK HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Is facing bankruptcy. It apparently ran into difficulties because of former trustees who failed to insure the endowments. The Society was founded in 1804 and has 650,000 volumes, 3 million books, manuscripts, historic documents and other artifacts in their collections. There are attempts being formulated to try and save these materials. (M.C.G.S. REPORTER of the Milwaukee Co WI Gen Soc, August 1993.)

COMPUTER USERS NIGHTMARE!

A computer error has wiped out all their permanent calendar listings. There were dates of births and deaths of prominent Polish-Americans, and significant dates in Polish history. The database has taken years to compile and they must now start from scratch. If you have data/dates they can use, write: Polish-American Journal/Polonia Calendar, 1275 Harlem Rd., Buffalo NY 14206. (M.C.G.S. REPORTER, as above.)

SERBIANS BRING BACK THE DARK AGES IN BOSNIA

The "ethnic cleansing" taking place in Bosnia is not only destroying Muslim lives, it is wiping out their history and records. Eyewitnesses have described the National Library destruction in Sarajevo with its extensive collection of oriental manuscripts and microfilms; the Franciscan Monastery in Mostar, which contained the main historical archives for Herzegovina including records before the Ottomans conquered the region in the 15th century, and a library adjoining a Sarajevo mosque with a treasure trove of Jewish and Islamic calligraphic and illuminated manuscripts dating to the 12th century. Ironically, the Serbian efforts to destroy an anthropological collection on the roof of the Sarajevo regional museum also destroyed a huge collection of Serbian records. (The Pomona Valley Gen Soc NEWSLETTER, March 1993, via the NEWSLETTER of the Immigrant Gen Soc #111, June 1993, and the M.C.G.S. REPORTER, as above.)

ANCESTOR A RAILROAD MAN?

Several members of the Rogue Valley Gen Soc have found the records of the Railroad Retirement Board, 844 N. Rush Street, Chicago IL 60611, a big help in obtaining information about an ancestor who worked on the railroad. Since many of these families moved around a lot as the wage earner was transferred these records might fill in a lot of gaps. The RR retirement pension was set up at the same time as Social Security, and the workers were assigned numbers with a prefix of 700-728. Another address is the United Association of Railroad Veterans, 187 Illinois St., Patterson NJ 07503. (From a flyer of the Rogue Valley Gen Soc, Sep 1993.)

LOS ANGELES MAIN BRANCH LIBRARY TO REOPEN

The temporary location of the Downtown Branch of the Los Angeles Public Library is closed to move the holdings to the rebuilt 5th Street site. The library will reopen 19 October 1993. (THE SEARCHER of the So CA Gen Soc, June 1993.)

PASSPORT APPLICATIONS AVAILABLE

Passport information through 1905 can be obtained by writing to this address: Diplomatic Records Branch, National Archives, Room 5D, Washington DC 20408. Applications filed beginning in 1906 can be obtained by writing to: Passport Office, Department of State, 1425 K Street NW, Washington DC 20406. A nominal fee will be assessed. (RABBIT TRACKS, Winter 1992 - subm. by Dwight Brainard, via Whatcom Gen Soc BULLETIN, Fall 1992.)

TITLE SEARCH, TONGUE IN CHEEK!

How far back must one search a title? With each passing year more and more documents are recorded affecting a title, thus making a title search more difficult and more complex. The following is a story of a New Orleans attorney who searched the title of a property for a New York firm of lawyers. The New Orleans attorney searched the title back to 1803. The New York firm, after receiving his opinion, said it was all very well as far as it went. They also asked that he establish the condition of the title prior to 1803. The New Orleans attorney replied as follows:

"I acknowledge your letter inquiring as to the state of the title of the Canal Street property prior to 1803. Please be advised that in 1803 the United States of America acquired the Territory of Louisiana from the Republic of France by purchase. The Republic of France acquired the title from the Spanish Crown by conquest. The Spanish Crown had originally acquired title by virtue of the discoveries of one Christopher Columbus, sailor, who had been duly authorized by Isabella, Queen of Spain. Isabella, before granting such authority, had obtained the sanction of His Holiness, the Pope; the Pope is the Vicar on Earth of Jesus Christ; Jesus Christ is the Son and Heir Apparent of God; God made Louisiana."

(From N.E. REAL ESTATE COMMISSION COMMENT, via Dottie Clayton, via the APPLELAND BULLETIN of the Gen Soc of North Central WA, June 1993.)

MISSOURI
ARCHIVE
RECORDS TO BE
ON-LINE BY 1995

Missouri State Archive records will be available by computer at libraries and universities in 1995. The Archives, part of the Secretary of State's Office, has received a $121,113 grant from the National Historical Publications and Records Commission of the National Archives in Washington. The project calls for bibliographic cataloging of the 20,000 cubic feet of permanent records and more than 25,000 rolls of microfilm housed at the State Archives. The cataloging will be in a format compatible with other computer systems already in use, and with Nationwide information networks. (KANSAS CITY GENEALOGIST, Heart of America Gen Soc, Kansas City MO, Summer 1993.)

CANOE EXPRESS FROM OLYMPIA

Prior to the arrival of steamboats, mail was obtained from Olympia by canoe express, provided by Robert Moxlie weekly at 25¢ per letter. The last canoe express was August 15, 1853. The first United States mail was delivered in Seattle August 27, 1853. (Excerpted from A HISTORY OF PUGET SOUND, Col. Wm. Farrand Prosser, via THE SOUNDER of the Sno-Isle Gen Soc, Vol 11, Issue 11.)

HARD TO READ RECORDS? TIP

For easier reading of faded writing use the direct beam of a black light. If you are reading poor microfilm copies, try using pink or green sheets of paper laid on the reader screen. The pastel color seems to absorb some of the glare of the white and the written copy seems clearer and easier to read. (I've used this with the readers at the Archives and it does seem to help. mfp) (From Fox Valley Gen Soc, Appleton WI, GENEALOGICAL GEMS, Fall 1993.)

UNUSUAL EPITAPH

In London, England, there is a tombstone with an unusual epitaph. A man named Solomon Peas gave instructions before his death for these words on his tombstone:

Beneath these clouds and beneath these trees

Lies the body of Solomon Peas;

This is not Peas; it's only his pod.

Peas has shelled out and gone home to God.

(From THE SEEKER, Fall 1993, Crawford Co Gen Soc of Southeast KS.)

INEVITABLE LAWS OF FAMILY HISTORY

(A few extracted)

The public ceremony in which your distinguished ancestor participated when the platform collapsed, turns out to be a hanging.

When you find the obituary for your grandmother, the information is garbled. Her name is exchanged with her daughter's, the whereabouts of her sons is unknown, and the date for her father's birth indicates he was younger than she was.

The four-volume, 4800 page history of the county where your great-grandfather lived is not indexed.

(From THE BULLETIN of the San Luis Obispo Co Gen Soc, Fall 1993, Atascadero CA.)

ORIGINAL CIVIL WAR DRAFT
RECORDS IN BAD CONDITION

Civil War Draft Records are at the National Archives. They are arranged by Congressional District. Not too bad to locate if you are in a rural area, but in a large city you need to know the ward of residence. These are original records, not on microfilm, and some are in poor condition.

(Marie V. Melchiori, Civil War record expert at the National Archives, via KANSAS CITY GENEALOGIST, as above.)
