DONATIONS TO THE OLYMPIA GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY

POST OFFICES IN THE UNITED STATES ALPHABETICALLY ARRANGED, FORMING A LIST OF THE CITIES, TOWNS, AND VILLAGES, WITH THEIR LOCATION, 1874, K. Wilham Genealogical Research and Publishing. Donated by B.J. Moe. This is a great tool to help find elusive old towns. We have one in our collection that is for 1876, but it is by state, so it might be easier to find them alphabetically if you don't know the state.

Costello, Margaret F. and Jane Fletcher Fiske, GUIDELINES FOR GENEALOGICAL WRITING. Style guide for the New England Historic and Genealogical Register with Suggestions for Genealogical Books, pub. by New England Historic and Genealogical Society, 1990. Donated by B.J. Moe. This is very helpful for setting up your records in a way that will be easy for others to read. It also has helpful suggestions on the format for your genealogical book when you are ready to write it.

Lainhart Ann S., STATE CENSUS RECORDS, Genealogical Publishing, 1992. Donated by B.J. Moe. This is a good guide to state censuses, what they contain and where to find them. I checked the ones for WA State and it seems accurate. It even includes any published state censuses including our own 1889 Thurston County Census. Hopefully they are all as accurate.

CALIFORNIA DEATH INDEX, 1990-1991. Donated by Larry Burnett. We now have the CA death index from 1940-1991. A good way to find some of those ancestors that disappeared from Washington or elsewhere. Larry is our out of town member, and does CA research. He will search the earlier CA death index from 1905-1940, and also do obits from all time periods for a fee. His address is in our membership book.

COVER STORY

Olympia's Yesterdays

The high school that wasn't

This vintage postcard from the Tyrrell collection is captioned, "WASHINGTON HIGH SCHOOL, OLYMPIA, WASHINGTON". In fact, there was no such thing. The building was the Washington Grade School, one of three towered brick school buildings all built to the same plans in 1890. Until 1907, so few Olympia youngsters continued their educations beyond the 8th grade that the few high school students were housed in a couple of rooms in the grade school.

Civic boosters felt that lack of a separate high school building was damaging to the prestige of the capital city, a problem which they solved by giving the postcard publisher in San Francisco the wrong label. (The original Washington School stood on the site now occupied by the National Guard Armory on East Legion Way.)

In 1906, local taxpayers approved a bond issue for construction of a real high school near the present location of the state General Administration Building, on land donated by Mrs. William Winlock Miller. This was completed in 1907, a handsome building of wood and Tenino sandstone costing all of $35,000.

In 1918, the already expanding seat of state government bought the building, intending to convert it to offices, and a new brick school was under construction across Capitol Way. The original high school caught fire on the evening of July 1, 1918. A brisk wind blew firebrands through the south end residential area, starting new fires. A summer drought had water levels and pressures low, the city council had rejected fire department pleas for a pumper engine, and the department had all it could do to keep the rest of the neighborhood from burning down. WWM High School was a total loss, but the new one was ready for occupancy by December. For many years it served all the students of the Olympia-Lacey-Tumwater area, but it too eventually fell victim to the state's bureaucratic spread and was demolished. Now the third to bear the name is one of five high schools in the same, but much-expanded capital community.

The tall smokestack of the state capitol heat and power plant on the shore of Capitol Lake stands as a sort of monument to the first William Winlock Miller High School. In a more frugal age, the sandstone from the burned building was salvaged to build the smokestack.

for
THURSTON COUNTY PIONEER & HISTORICAL SOCIETY
1955

Olympia, Washington
(Concluded. from Vol. XVIII, No. 4, p.104)

Jasper A. Wilson

died May 8, 1955, in his home at 1305 Marion Street. He was born in Illinois on September 25, 1867, and came to Olympia in 1915. Mr. Wilson was married to Jennie W. Gilbert in Raymond, Kansas, April 15, 1890, and homesteaded in Oklahoma prior to coming to Olympia forty years ago. His wife died here five years ago. Surviving are two brothers, Samuel J. Wilson, Olympia, and Frank Wilson, Red Deer, Alberta, Canada, and several nieces and nephews living in this vicinity.

Fred H. Wright

died November 11, 1955 in his home at 209 North Quince Street. He was born in Fort Simcoe on the Yakima Indian Reservation, January 15, 1867. His father, William Wright, was supervisor of the Yakima Indian Agency at the time. Fred Wright came to Thurston County sixty-five years ago. He was married to Miss Myrtle E. Gilliland in Olympia in 1911. She died here three months ago. Mr. Wright operated a farm in the South Union district for many years, and moved to his present home in Olympia forty-four years ago. He had been very active in the Methodist Church at South Union for many years, and in recent years had been associated with the New Testament Group in Olympia. Mr. Wright was one of nine children, surviving of which are two sisters, Miss Fannie L. Wright and Miss Ada P. Wright, both of Olympia.

Myrtle E. Wright

died August 18, 1955, in her home at 209 North Quince Street. Mrs. Wright was born in Iowa, January 5, 1874, the daughter of Reuben W. and Mary Jane Gilliland. The family moved to Thurston County in 1878, and settled on a homestead on what is now a part of the Millersylvania State Park. Mrs. Wright taught school several years before she married Fred H. Wright, August 17, 1911. They established their first home in Olympia and have lived here since. She was one of a family of seven girls and a boy. Her survivors in addition to her husband, are two sisters, Mrs. (Nettle) Richard Swan, and Mrs. Frank (Agnes) Roberts, both of Tumwater; two brothers-in-law, John Mills and Frank A. Roberts, Olympia; and many nieces and nephews living in this vicinity.

State Pioneer Sue S. Wright

died in Olympia, February 18, 1955, at the age of 86. Mrs. Wright was born in Iowa City, Iowa, June 10, 1868. She taught school for many years following graduation from Cornell College. She had resided in Seattle since 1901 before returning to Olympia one year ago. She was employed in the King County auditor's office for many years and was a member of the Grace Methodist Church, Seattle, serving as treasurer at one time. She was a housemother for the College of Puget Sound, Tacoma, for a few years. Surviving are two sons, Preston F. Wright, Olympia, and Robert L. G. Wright, Seattle; a brother, Dr. L. C. Shockley, Mobridge, South Dakota; two grandchildren, and two great-grandchildren.

State Pioneer Gertrude Wynstra,

a former Olympia resident, died April 11, 1955, in Cheney. She was 83 years old. Survivors include four sons who held positions of responsibility in the field of Education, Dr. Stanley S. Wynstra, a former teacher in Olympia's Lincoln School, is Superintendent of schools in Yonkers, New York, Walter S. - ARMY RECORDS The London Public Record Office is selling Army Records for Family Historians. Time covered is from Queen Elizabeth I to Suez in 1956. This is the same series as Making Use of the Census, published previously. (THE FAMILY TREE, pg. 42, as above)
- FREE MAP OF GERMANY Write for a large and colorful map of the United Germany. Free from the German Information Center, 950 Third Avenue, NY NY 10022. (THE FAMILY TREE, as above, pg 2)
- CHURCH REPOSITORIES PRAIRIE PIONEER, Warren Co IL, Oct-Nov-Dec 1992, lists Church Archive Repositories in the U.S. They also have a Family History Questionnaire to help you to organize your own research.
- ABBREVIATIONS When doing genealogy, be careful with abbreviations. They can be, and often are, misleading. MD is a medical doctor, md is a mule driver; D is daughter, d is death; B is brother, b is born. Make it a point to use the correct abbreviations and hope that others do also. It can be to your advantage to create, form, copy or list all of the common abbreviations that you - yourself - use. Too often a searcher will work at a distant facility and will abbreviate as he/she copies everything they can find. When the time comes to incorporate this material into the main body of the research, you cannot remember just what the abbreviations represented. At least make an effort to provide yourself with a key to these shortened forms as you work at out-of-town libraries, etc.
- Following is a list of some abbreviations you may see:
- MD - doctor or surgeon, Mayflower Descendant, Maryland
 - md - mule driver
 - CR - can't write
 - Unk - not uncle, means unknown
 - Frm - not farmer, means Freeman
 - Diet - Board
 - express - Riders of the Pony Express
 - drawer - Post Office Box
 - Gentlemen - Justice of the Peace or Magistrate, no legal training
 - Exp Nes - experience necessary
- (PRAIRIE PIONEER, Warren Co IL, from OHIO DAR NEWS March-April 1990)

- MILITARY HELP, WWI For all resident males, citizens or not, born between 1873 and 1900, there are World War I Selective Service records on file at: Federal Records Center, 1557 St. Joseph Ave., East Point GA 30344. (PRAIRIE PIONEER, Jul-Aug-Sep 1992. From ROOTS & BRANCHES, July 1992)
- MISSOURI COURTHOUSE FIND Records cache found. Ripley County MO records were found in a Courthouse basement. They date back to 1856. (Missouri State Genealogical Assn JOURNAL, Summer 1992)
- BULLETINS FORWARDED? THE GENEALOGICAL RECORD of the Houston Genealogical Forum, Dec 1992, issues a warning about any forwarding of bulletins. If they are sent first or second class, a Temporary Forwarding Service of the Post Office will include them. If they are sent third class, especially those sent with bulk permits - "non profit" permits or not, they are NOT forwarded. Sometimes certain bulk mail is forwarded, at your request, but this should be arranged in advance. Per Arlys Reitz LaFehr, who had a bad experience with this. (Ed. note: If your address changes, even temporarily, be sure to NOTIFY the publishers of all the bulletins, quarterlies, magazines, etc. that you receive.)
- BEST SOURCE HARD TO FIND PLACES Omni Gazetteer of the United States of America, Vols 1-11. For hard-to-find places. Frank R. Abate, Editor. The eleven volumes include a National Index and Appendices, provide name, location, and identification of nearly 1,500,000 populated places, structures, facilities, locales, historic places and geographic features in the 50 states, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, and U.S. Territories. - MEDICAL FAMILY TREE THE AMERICAN ELM, of the Western Massachusetts Genealogical Society, Fall 1992, refers to an article on congenital health conditions in "Consumer Reports on health" in the Summer 1992 edition (Vol 4, No 9). While they couldn't reprint the entire article, as they lacked permission, there is a good bit of extracted information here.
- BLACK RESEARCH The Mississippi Dept of Archives and History is creating a computer index to the first labor contracts that 36,359 former Mississippi slaves entered into in 1865 and 1866. The original contracts, kept by the Freedmen's Bureau, are at the National Archives in Washington DC. The contracts were listed by date, and the researchers have had to read through many rolls of film to find a particular name. Researchers will soon have access to a new computer index to these records. To inquire about these records, write to the Mississippi State Archives, Capers Bldg., 100 South State Street, Jackson MS. (National Genealogical Society QUARTERLY via Eastern Washington Genealogical Society)
- NEW YORK VITAL RECORDS INDEXES REOPENED NY researchers are now able to search the older vital records indexes again, with the same restrictions that were in place before they were closed to the public in Sep 1990. For more information see page 40 of Issue #40 of HERITAGE QUEST. (BULLETIN of the San Luis Obispo Co Gen Soc, Winter 1992)

Doin' Research

"The Court House burned in '89"
A few years after his will was filed.
And they always said that at one time
He lived in Ohio for a while.

"The cemetery closed in '34"
So the records have been lost.
But you can get a death report.
"Of course, there will be a cost."

Births were not recorded then
And census takers couldn't spell.
"He was born on ship, you know" -
Yet when and from where, I cannot tell.

"His mother's name was Mary,"
She had no maiden name.
She died, but where to bury
This woman of unknown fame?

Some say he was a veteran.
"Yes, he fought in the Civil War."
His name was shared by at least ten men,
Both North and South, of this I'm sure.

He fathered thirteen children.
I found them despite all this.
Yet, according to the census man,
They couldn't all be really his.

And, you say to me, "genealogy is fun."
I'm buried in paper to my knees.
(He MUST have been SOMEONE'S son.)
I wonder ... am I really me?
