DONATIONS TO THE OLYMPIA GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY

Several catalogs have been donated by their publishers that are extensive enough you should know about them. First, from Higginson Book Company, is their Family History Catalog No. 10 and Source Catalog No. 4. This company reprints many old family histories and other genealogy books, and these may be purchased at a reasonable price. Another company that does the same thing is Tuttle Antiquarian Books. They sent their catalog No. 8, Genealogy and Local History. These will be in the file under catalogs. Please take a look, but don't take the catalogs. They both have order blanks that can be xeroxed, so you can send in your orders and leave the catalogs for others.

Jette, Rene, DICTIONNAIRE GENEALOGIQUE DES FAMILLES DU QUEBEC DES ORIGINES A 1730, University of Montreal, 1983. Donated in memory of Sarah L'Heureux Dellinger, grandmother of member Carole Rambo Holt, by members of Sarah's family. Although the book is in French, it is alphabetical by family name, and contains genealogies of many French Canadian families. This should be useful to anyone with French Canadian ancestry.

016.9291 Khouw, Petta, COUNTY BY COUNTY IN OHIO GENEALOGY, State Library of Ohio, 1992. This is the update of the one we have dated 1978. I am sure a great deal has been added since then. The State Library of Ohio does offer limited research service by mail from these publications, so this may help those researching Ohio. It also lets you know what has been published on each county. Donated by Washington State Library Documents.

United States, Pay Dept. (War Dept.), PIERCE'S REGISTER: REGISTER OF THE CERTIFICATES ISSUED BY JOHN PIERCE, ESQUIRE, PAYMASTER GENERAL AND COMMISSIONER OF ARMY, Continental Army under act of July 4, 1783, Genealogical Pub. Co., 1973. Donated by Irma LaNore. This is another good source to locate a Revolutionary War ancestor. The listing is Cert. No., name, and amount. With the certificate number you can determine which regiment he was with. Be sure to read the information at the front of the book so you will have some background on this information.

William "Bill" Earl

929.2089 Dobson, David, DIRECTORY OF SCOTTISH SETTLERS IN NORTH AMERICA 1625-1825, Vols. 3-6, Genealogical Pub., 1984. These directories were compiled from Scottish newspapers and magazines that contained birth, marriage and death announcements, deeds, services of heirs, and many other sources that link Scottish settlers between Scotland and North America. This should be very useful for all those hard to find ancestors who are not on ship passenger lists. Each directory is alphabetical and easy to use. In each case the source of the information is given. A sample entry is: Gardiner, Robert Emigrated from Scotland with son and daughter to Canada on the Commerce in June 1821. Received a land grant in Dalhousie Upper Canada on 15 July 1821. (PAO) = Public Archives of Ontario Ms 154.

Wesley Ulrey Williams

929.347 Sanborn, Melinde Lutz, SUPPLEMENT TO TORREY'S NEW ENGLAND MARRIAGES PRIOR TO 1700, Genealogical Pub, 1991. This update to the original book will be useful to anyone doing New England research. It is alphabetical by the groom with an evername index at the back.

929.3747 Scott, Dr. Kenneth, RECORDS OF THE CHANCERY COURT PROVINCE AND STATE OF NEW YORK GUARDIANSHIPS 1691-1815, Holland Society of New York, 1971. This book will be a great help in proving relationships in early New York when there are no vital records available. As a sample, p. 17 as follows: Petition (22 May 1767) of Fleming Colgan (age upwards of 18) son of the Rev. Thomas Colgan, late of Jamaica, Queens Co., by Mary his wife, praying that Lawrence Reade, of New York City, merchant, may be appointed his guardian (C, pp. 262-263).

Elizabeth C. Bowen Gerrish

929.3847 Scott, Kenneth, GENEALOGICAL DATA FROM NEW YORK ADMINISTRATION BONDS, 1753-1799, AND HITHERTO UNPUBLISHED LETTERS OF ADMINISTRATION, Collections of the New York Genealogical and Biographical Society, Vol. X, 1969. Another helpful source for searching. It is alphabetical by the decedent and indexed for all other names.

Walter "Wally" Edward Reid

974.903 Wilson, Thomas B., NOTICES FROM NEW JERSEY NEWSPAPERS, 1781-1790, Records of New Jersey, Vol. 1, Hunterdon House, 1988. Newspaper abstracts are always useful to genealogists because they contain so much information that is difficult to obtain elsewhere. There are several types of indexes in the back of the book. Part I is to Innholders and Tavernkeepers, Public houses, Storekeepers and Merchants. Part 2 is to all kinds of subjects, and then there is an index to places and people.

974.9 Barber, John W., HISTORICAL COLLECTIONS OF THE STATE OF NEW JERSEY, CONTAINING A GENERAL COLLECTION OF THE MOST INTERESTING FACTS, TRADITIONS, BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES, ANECDOTES, ETC. RELATING TO ITS HISTORY AND ANTIQUITIES, WITH GEOGRAPHICAL DESCRIPTIONS OF EVERY TOWNSHIP IN THE STATE, Heritage Books, 1990, reprint of 1845 edition. The title tells it all, plus there is a name and place index in the back. There are illustrations of village scenes, old homes, and a few maps of Revolutionary War battles. A good source for information on early days in New Jersey.

Elizabeth A. Esteb

929.3772 Franklin, Charles M., INDEX TO INDIANA WILLS, PHASE 1 THROUGH 1850, Heritage House, 1986. This is an index to all recorded wills in Indiana from the earliest time through 1850. It contains over 6000 testator names, county in which will is recorded, and the book and page number on which the record begins. The researcher can then contact the county or see if it has been filmed by the LDS church, and get copies of the actual will. In some counties the wills don't begin until after 1850, or were lost or destroyed, and the preface lists those.

Marjorie Bowers

929.3741 Frost, John Eldridge, MAINE PROBATE ABSTRACTS, Vol. 1, 1687-1775, and Vol. 2, 1775-1800, Picton Press, 1991. These books contain abstracts of all records of the Probate Courts of Maine, whether wills, administrations, estate divisions, estate accounts, guardianships or other acts. There is an index of all persons mentioned in the two volumes as well as a subject index, place index, and even an index to occupations. This should be invaluable to anyone researching early Maine and New England, since probate records are difficult to find. The abstracts are very detailed, naming all items in a will, as well as the heirs.

The memorials for Marjorie Bowers, Wes Williams, and Elizabeth Gerrish were actually leftovers from last year. Some of the books ordered for each of the originally were not available, so new ones were ordered, and these are the ones we chose.

1992 PURCHASES WITH SOCIETY MONEY

AN ALL NAME INDEX TO THE SOUNDER, VOL. 1-5, by Sno Isle Genealogical Society, April 1992. The board decided to purchase this index since we have the SOUNDER in our Northwest periodical collection. These periodicals are difficult to use without an index. The money was taken from the binding fund, since that fund is for periodicals. The index will be bound with volumes 4 and 5, since volumes 1-3 have already been bound.

929.3772 Franklin, Charles, INDEX TO INDIANA WILLS, PHASE II - 1850-1880, Heritage House, 1987. This is a continuation of Phase 1, and does the same thing for a later period. The publishers have abstracts of some of these wills, and these can be obtained for a fee. A list of the counties and dates of the abstracts is listed in the front of the book.

929.2 MAYFLOWER FAMILIES THROUGH FIVE GENERATIONS, Volume 6, STEPHEN HOPKINS, Pub. by General Society of Mayflower Descendants, 1992. This is the 6th in the five generation project by the society. The information was compiled by John D. Austin, and includes many surnames that are direct descendants of Stephen Hopkins.

Genealogical Society Offers Oregon Trail Certificate

The Oregon Trail Project is issuing special certificates to anyone whose ancestors came west via the Oregon Trail between the years 1811 and 1911.

"This is a tribute to those hardy pioneers who came overland by wagon, handcart or foot along the Oregon Trail," said Jane Walls Golden, chairperson of the Oregon Trail Project. "Entire families, with all their worldly possessions in tow, left homes and loved ones to follow an inner voice that promised a better life 'out west'."

Recognizing descendants of Oregon Trail travelers commemorates the sesquicentennial (150th anniversary) of the peak year of westerly migration, Golden explained.

"People began to head west in 1811 using the Old Platte Road," she said. "But the exodus was at its height in 1843 when about 300,000 pioneers journeyed west of the Missouri River to begin new lives. The Old Platte Road then became known as the Oregon Trail."

To qualify for an Oregon Trail certificate, Golden said applicants must prove direct descent from a person who traveled any part of the Oregon Trail between 1811 and 1911. To receive an application or more information, write to the Oregon Trail Project at 4620 Overland Rd., #206, Boise, Idaho 83705.

The Oregon Trail Project of Idaho is a non-profit organization dedicated to collecting, archiving and publishing data about the Oregon Trail.

LIBRARY CORNER

BY JEAN LAWS

NEW BOOKS IN THE LIBRARY

BOOKS PURCHASED BY TIMBERLAND FOR THE GENEALOGY COLLECTION

016.9291 GENEALOGIES CATALOGED BY THE LIBRARY OF CONGRESS SINCE 1986, Library of Congress, 1992. This is a continuation of the Genealogies in the Library of Congress and its supplements that we already have. The first part is alphabetical by the surname and gives general information about the book. Two new sections have been added that should be helpful to genealogists. Section II is established forms of family names. Genealogical forms are gathered under a form that has been determined to be the most common spelling for that surname. This may also help in determining which form to look under in other genealogical libraries. Section III is a listing of older family histories which have been microfilmed when the original was becoming impossible to use.

In 1992, Timberland Regional Library completed and published a collection development policy. The purpose is to provide guidelines for the selection of books and for the acceptance of gifts and memorials. This policy for genealogy was developed by Jan Sterner and I, and revised with the input of the OGS board. Here is the policy for the benefit of our members, to give you guidelines for which books to donate to the library for the genealogy collection.

The reference genealogy collection is housed in the Olympia Timberland Library.

Timberland purchases how-to books, and accepts gift books in this category only if they are very current titles not already owned by the library district.

Timberland purchases and accepts as gifts actual records from states, counties, townships, or cities. These records must be broad in scope or useful to many people.

Timberland does not purchase family/surname books, and accepts as gifts only books on prominent historical families of general interest and on Northwest families.

Timberland purchases and accepts as gifts local histories covering Washington or Oregon locations, of gifts of histories of states, counties, or cities which include biographical sketches and are of broad general interest.

USEFUL BOOKS NOT IN THE GENEALOGY SECTION

793 Bonsey, Lynn and Healey, Lorna, IT'S ALL RELATIVE HOW TO CREATE YOUR OWN PERSONAL FAMILY HISTORY TRIVIA GAME, Heritage Books, 1988. Two sisters developed this game to create a unique gift for their parents. In sorting memorabilia, researching and sharing reminiscences, they discovered a great deal about their family. The book tells how to get started, how to make the game, how to play, and do research for it. Might be a good idea for family get-togethers, reunions, etc.

Madden, T.O. Jr., WE WERE ALWAYS FREE, THE MADDENS OF CULPEPER COUNTY, VIRGINIA: A 200 Year Family History. This book traces a black family from the poor Irish immigrant Mary Madden, who had a child by a slave that belonged to Col. James Madison. Because her mother was free, the girl, Sarah, was born a free mulatto who was indentured to the Madisons. This is the story of her and her son Willis (one of her 10 children) and his descendants. Through a series of circumstances rather unique, this family was always free from the very beginning, but there were still many prejudices and laws against free blacks. The author found many papers of this ancestor in an old trunk and did a search for more info using census, court records, land, etc. A fascinating account which will give you a new perspective on early blacks in America. You will have a better understanding of them when you see "free black" on the census records.

Since I am retiring from the library, but not from genealogy, this is my last Library Corner. It has been a privilege and pleasure to have the opportunity to talk to so many of you about genealogy and your triumphs and frustrations. I hope I have been able to answer some of your questions, or steer you in the right directions. I certainly have learned a great deal more than I ever would have in any other way. The Olympia reference staff will continue to serve you the best they can. Luckily, Pat Harper, one of the reference staff, is a member of our society, and is doing her own research, so I know she will carry on with some of my duties in the library.

GERMAN EMIGRANTS REGISTER

The index covers the entire former German Empire, i.e. Prussia, Alsace-Lorraine, Bavaria, Saxony, Wurttemberg, Baden, Oldenburg, Hesse, and the other minor German States. The index includes deserters from the armies of Prussia, Wurttemberg and Saxony, 1871-1918; persons who were sought as missing heirs and may have left long ago, and persons who were absent from their hometown who were searched for by the authorities. To find out if your German emigrant ancestor is on file, write to: Germanic Emigrants Register, PO Box 1720, D-2840 (W), Diepholz, Germany. Send all known information. If the place of origin is found you will be quoted a fee. If nothing is found, there is no charge and your name and information is placed in the database so you can be notified if your ancestor is entered at a future time. (THE PALATINE IMMIGRANT)

CIVIL WAR ANCESTOR IN COLORADO?

A Civil War "newspaper" called SOLDIER'S LETTER, contained battle info, company rosters, some death and marriage info. The Second Colorado Calvary, rosters of various companies, copies of pictures, patients in hospital at Fort Riley, KS and other information. (COLORADO GEN SOC, Denver, CO. THE FORGOTTEN
CENSUS OF 1880

The "Forgotten" census of 1880 of "Defective, Dependent and Delinquent Classes" was a "contemporary effort to use the federal census as a vehicle for gathering - data - needed for - social reform groups." Prisons, jails, mental hospitals, poorhouses and orphanages were recorded with conditions of persons, and reason for being in the institutions. Article shows where records for each state are now located. (NATIONAL GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY QUARTERLY, March 1992 via BLACK HILLS NUGGETS, May 1992)

WAYNE COUNTY?

There was a county named Wayne (created in 1796) which ceased to exist in 1803 when Ohio became a state. That area became part of Michigan. Both Michigan and Ohio currently have a Wayne County. So, if you have an early entry that says Wayne County, beware! (HENRY CO IL GEN SOC NEWS-LETTER via DUPAGE COUNTY GEN SOC via NORTHWESTERN OHIO GEN SOC, June 1992)

COOK YOUR OLD BOOKS!

Seems the Library of Congress does! If they suspect a book of containing silverfish, lice or roaches, they place it in a microwave oven and "cook" it 60 seconds on WARM or LOW setting to kill both insects and eggs. So, if you buy a book at a garage sale, or bring one home from somebody's attic, here's a way to keep "them critters" under control. (THE ROGUE DIGGER, Summer 1992)

OHIO VITAL

POST-IT NOTES LEAVE RESIDUE!

It was recommended in the "National Archivist" (May/June 1990) that you not attach Post-It notes to any document you wish to preserve. The notes leave a residue which will eventually cause the paper to deteriorate. (OKALOOSA, FL CO GEN SOC, Spring 1992)

SCOTS ANCESTOR?

If your Scots ancestor is reputed to have come to America 1757-1763 and was born before 1741, he may have been a soldier with Col. Simon Fraser's 78th Highlander Regt. which was recruited in the Inverness area and came over to fight the French in Canada at Louisbourg, Quebec, Montreal, etc. They remained in America after discharge in 1763. A list of regiments can be accessed by sending a SASE to Walter H. McIntosh, Box 214, Topsfield, MA 01983. Enclose all known information on ancestor. - IRISH ANCESTRY Ireland of the Welcomes for May-June 1992 reports that over a year ago Ireland's Prime Minister announced plans for the Irish Genealogical Project, with the ultimate aim of computerizing all records of major genealogical importance for the entire thirty-two counties of Ireland. Griffith's Primary Valuation was used as a basis for this great undertaking. This unique listing of all tenants of property in Ireland, made between 1844 and 1866, is particularly valuable where it identifies a family group BEFORE they emigrated. The article tells of genealogical work being done in the various counties of Ireland.
- The entire issue July-August 1992 of Ireland of the Welcomes is devoted to genealogy. Articles include: Emigration: The Irish Experience, Brave New World - 18th Century Emigration to America, The Great Exodus: The Nineteenth Century, The Twentieth Century: "We can't all live on a small island", Canada's Irish, This distant land: The Irish in America. "Pampas Irish": The Irish in South America, Australian Pioneers, Irish Links & Contributions: New Zealand, and others. (BLACK HILLS NUGGETS, Rapid City, SD, Aug 1992 Vol XXV, No. 3)
- TENNESSEE ANCESTRY A program established to preserve Tennessee genealogical information and family histories issues certificates to anyone having a Tennessee ancestor. For each application and further details send legal size SASE to: The Tennessee Genealogical Society, PO Box 11249, Memphis, TN 38111-1249. (EASTERN WASH GEN SOC, Vol 29, No. 3, Sept 92)
- CHICAGO VOTER REGISTRATION The records for the years of 1888, 1890 and 1892 have recently been discovered, microfilmed, and made available for research. The list names male citizens who were twenty-one years of age before the day of election, resided in the state for one year, the county ninety days, and in the precinct thirty days. There were 133,236 voters in 1888, over 138,000 in 1890, and about 276,000 in 1892. The record will show the voter's address, term of residence, country of birth, whether or not naturalized and if so, the date and court in which the papers were obtained. Contact IRAD c/o NEIU, Ronald Williams Library, Lower Level, 5500 N St. Louis, Chicago, IL 60625. (THE SEARCHER, So Calif Gen Soc, July 1992) How these lists can be accessed for partial replacement of the 1890 census of Chicago. (BIG BEND REGISTER, Sep 1992 via GRAYS HARBOR NEWSLETTER, May 1992)

- BRITISH COLUMBIA REGISTER The PIONEER REGISTER is an index of persons living in British Columbia prior to 1900. These have been submitted by members of the BC Genealogical Society. Information includes the following: a short note about the pioneer's life; list of references to ancestor in newspapers or books; list of family members.
