SURNAME INDEX

The new Olympia Genealogical Society Surname Index book is still available. The Surname Index contains more than 18,400 names of the ancestors of over 150 OGS members. The objective of the publication is to help individual members find others in the society working on the same family lines, and also to provide contacts for other genealogists nationwide. It is the result of a project undertaken by the OGS Computer Interest Group, with Chairman Jerri McCoy acting as the editor.

Members of the CIG transcribed pedigree charts, ahnentafel charts, notes, and computerized genealogies for this publication. The pertinent facts (birth, marriage, and death along with the name of the state or country) as submitted, are included in the book, along with a code to identify the contributor.

Copies of the OGS Surname Index book can be purchased from Kathy Houser or Letty Schoch (at the Society's address) for $23.78 ($22.00 plus $1.78 sales tax). Add an additional $2.25 if you would like to have yours mailed.

CARD FILE PROJECT COMPLETED!

The card file project headed by Dick Jones is now complete. Dick and other OGS members inventoried the entire Olympia Timberland Library genealogical collection, and entered detailed information on each book in a computer database — some 1,327 records.

Cards have been printed that index the collection by geographic area and subject. The cards have been placed in a two-drawer file, and are a helpful finding aid that complements the library's computer catalogue. The file is located in the genealogy section of the library, and is available for all to use.

DONATIONS TO THE OLYMPIA GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY

Feldman, Lawrence H., ANGLO-AMERICANS IN SPANISH ARCHIVES, Lists of Anglo-American Settlers in the Spanish Colonies of America, A Finding Aid, Genealogical Pub., 1991. These lists cover a large number of settlers in the Spanish territory which later became the states of Alabama, Florida, Louisiana, Mississippi, and Missouri. Different information is included on the various lists, but they do include names and dates as well as militia information, marital status, and sometimes country or state of origin. Donated by B.J. Moe, in memory of Dennis A. Jarrell, son of Al and Dorothy Jarrell.

Johnson, Lt. Col. Richard S., HOW TO LOCATE ANYONE WHO IS OR HAS BEEN IN THE MILITARY, ARMED FORCES LOCATOR DIRECTORY, Pub. and donated by Military Information Enterprises, 1991. (see book review.) This will be located in the regular reference section of the library.

SEARCH FOR THE PASSENGERS OF THE MARY & JOHN 1630, Vol. 15, "Mary & John III" Tour to England 1990 Plus New Discoveries, The Mary & John Clearing House, 1990. Donated by Maurice Click. A continuation of this series, most of which we have in the library.

AUGUSTAN SOCIETY OMNIBUS BOOK 12, Augustan Society, 1990. Donated by Marie Brown. This is a sample copy of a journal which is available by subscription. It contains articles on names of queens, chivalry, various monarchies, and such things as the family of Eleanor of Castile. Take a look in the file under GENERAL and see if you would like to subscribe.

POINTERS - PURSUING OUR ITALIAN NAMES TOGETHER. This is a periodical with information on Italian surnames and research. It claims to be America's only Italian Genealogy Magazine. We were given Vol. 3 #4 (Autumn 1989) to Vol 4 #4 (Winter 1990) by Cindy Cameli. They will be in the genealogy file under Italy.

CONNECTICUT HISTORICAL SOCIETY BULLETIN, Summer/Fall 1987, Nos. 3-4. We don't normally keep these any more, because they are more historical than genealogical, but this one is on Mary Wright Alsop 1740-1829 and her Needlework, and has many examples of this needlework as well as a partial Alsop family tree. It will be in the vertical file under Connecticut. Donated by B.J. Moe.

MAYFLOWER FAMILIES THROUGH FIVE GENERATIONS, Vol. 5, Families of Edward Winslow and John Billington, General Society of Mayflower Descendants, 1991. Donated by B.J. Moe in memory of OGS charter member Cora Effie Nelson. This is the fifth in this series that has been published.

Fisher, Carleton E. and Sue G., compilers, SOLDIERS, SAILORS, AND PATRIOTS OF THE REVOLUTIONARY WAR, MAINE, National Society of the Sons of the American Revolution, 1982. Donated by the Washington State Society Sons of the American Revolution. Presented to OGS by Alexander Hamilton Chapter member Donald Dazey. This book lists all Maine men who served in the war, all who came to Maine after serving in the war, and all Patriots, such as anyone elected to a town or public office, etc. They are listed alphabetically and list name, service, birth, death and spouse when known. Some have more info than others, but all should be helpful to genealogists.

Orton, Brig. Gen. Richard H., compiler, RECORDS OF CALIFORNIA MEN IN THE WAR OF THE REBELLION 1861-1867, Sacramento, 1890. Donated by the Documents Department, Washington State Library. More than 16,000 men served from a number of California regiments and battalions. Also, 500 were enlisted within its borders and became part of the quota of Mass. and eight companies raised for Washington Territory. Besides general background information on these companies, there is a listing for each under the name of the company showing name, rank, place of enrollment, date of enlistment, date of muster, and remarks, such as when and where mustered out, discharged, deserted, etc.

Gibbs, Vernon M., Vernon Gibbs of Palestine has the largest private collection of the surname Gibbs in the U.S. He has sent us some pages about Gibbs in Washington State and elsewhere, and will be happy to share more with any Gibbs researcher. This will be in the vertical file under GIBBS.

MISSING MAP FROM OGS SEMINAR

On the following page you will find a map of foreign city, country and region names used for Indiana cities and towns. Sandra Luebking intended this to be part of the Indiana portion of the OGS Seminar package, but it was inadvertently left out. She has graciously sent us this copy to make available to our readers.

A Study in Toponymy

BOOK REVIEW - by Jean LawsHow To Locate Anyone Who Is Or Has Been In The Military, Armed Forces Locator Directory
by Lt. Col. Richard S. Johnson

This book is a must for anyone trying to locate active, retired, and former members of the Army, Navy, Air Force, Marine Corps, Coast Guard, Reserve Components, and National Guard. It also contains Military Unit Reunion information and a directory of veterans, Military, and Patriotic organizations. It is easy to use, as each chapter covers a topic, i.e. Chapter 6, How to Obtain Military Records, Unit and Ship Rosters and Organizational Records. There is even a chapter on how to locate anyone, civilian or military. The addresses of vital records offices and state motor vehicle registration offices, located at the back of the book, is especially useful. The author suggests reading the whole book before starting, so you will be aware of all possibilities. Since this book is useful to both genealogists and the general public, it will be located in the regular reference section.

DORIS MITCHELL
21 July 1915 - 27 Apr 1992

Doris G. Mitchell

Doris G. Mitchell, 76, Olympia, died Monday, April 27, 1992, in her home.

She was born to Oswald and Mable (Kie) Gillespie on July 21, 1915, in Boston, Mass., where she lived until the age of 12. The family then moved to Schenectady, N.Y., where she was graduated from high school and attended two years of business college.

She was married to Robert W. Mitchell in 1940, in Schenectady. The couple moved to Baltimore, Md., in 1956, to Hawaii in 1961, to Moscow, Idaho, in 1973, to Port Angeles in 1984, and to Olympia in 1985.

Mrs. Mitchell had been an instructor of genealogy in Idaho for a period of time, and was employed by General Electric as a secretary.

She was active in the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, and was a member of the Daughters of the Eastern Star in Schenectady. She was also interested and active in genealogy.

Surviving, besides her husband of the family home, are four sons, Robert W. and Jeffrey G., both of Olympia, David C., Moscow, Idaho, and John L., Lacey; one brother, Arnold C. Gillespie, Schenectady; also nine grandchildren.

There will be a private family service for Mrs Mitchell. Interment will be on Thursday, April 30, in Moscow City Cemetery, Moscow, Idaho.

Arrangements are by Woodlawn Funeral Home, Lacey.

We are saddened by the death of one of our members, Doris Mitchell, and we extend our sympathies to her family. Memorials in Doris's name may be sent to our society at the regular address.

Leopold Schmidt Announces Plans To Build Brewery

OLYMPIA, September 18, 1895--A deal which has been pending for several days culminated yesterday afternoon in the sale of five and one-quarter acres of land near the lower falls at Tumwater to parties from Montana, who will build a big brewery on the property. The purchasers are L. F. Schmidt of Deer Lodge, Montana, and his brother Louis of butte. These gentlemen have been around the past three days with Alex Drysdale, who negotiated the sale, and after making surveys of the property, estimates of the water power, etc., a satisfactory settlement was arrived at, the sum of $4550 in case paid to Mrs. Fannie E. Biles, the owner of the property, a deed made out to Schmidt Bros. and placed on record yesterday afternoon.

The land comprises the plat between the Des Chutes and the Union Pacific grade and fronting on the sound. The Tumwater Ice company's plant is upon it.

It is the intention of Schmidt Bros. to put up a brewery and ice plant costing $60,000 on the spot where the tannery now stands, or near it, and to make other improvements. They will fill in a portion of the tide flats out to the channel of the river, and build a wharf there in anticipation of a time which must soon come, when the sound between Olympia and Tumwater will be navigable at all tides either by dredging the channel or making a fresh water lake of it by building a dam and locks near the Westside bridge.

Work on the plant will begin next month, shortly after the 16th. On that date L. F. Schmidt will move into the residence on the property to personally oversee the work. Mrs. Biles will immediately build a new residence on the lot formerly occupied by her house, which burned last spring, and upon its completion it will be occupied by E. C. Suiter and family, who now live in the house which Schmidt will occupy.

It has been conceded all along that this was an excellent location for a brewery, and the Schmidt Bros., who are old hands in the business are the right people to take advantage of this fact. An official investigation made three years ago for the U. S. government disclosed the fact that at that time over $85,000 per year was sent out of Thurston County for beer. At the present time the consumption is probably considerably less, but there is still a big drain on the county on this account, which will be almost entirely stopped by the construction of a brewery here. Then there will of course be employment of a number of men, and the hop growers in the county will be given encouragement in having a home market for their product.

*Later Note: For a brief time, beginning with the establishment of the Brewery in Tumwater in 1896, the name of the company was the Capital Brewery, located at the extreme southern tip of Puget Sound alongside of the DesChutes River waterfall which appears on the label of Olympia Beer.

Jerry Meeker,

Indian weather prophet and leader of his people, died April 4, 1955, in his Brown's Point home two days short of his 94th birthday. Meeker, whose Indian name was Dayott, was active in Indian affairs from his early youth. He was born in Pierce County. After three years schooling, he worked unceasingly for better education for his people. LIBRARY CORNER

NEW BOOKS IN THE LIBRARY

Bosley, Jerome D., compiler, GENEALOGICAL PERIODICALS FOUND IN THE SEATTLE PUBLIC LIBRARY, Seattle Genealogical Society, March 1991. This is a handy book to consult before going to Seattle to do research, or to check after using a periodical index such as PERSI, which is in our library. It tells you the name of the periodical, the society that publishes it, their address, and the dates in the Seattle library collection. It is arranged by Dewey order, with some Vertical files thrown in, making it difficult to find a title unless you use the handy indexes in back. They are indexed by area and by title. If you are researching a certain area, you can see if it is worth a trip to Seattle, especially if you also check the other book by the Seattle Genealogical Society called GENEALOGICAL PERIODICALS FOUND IN THE SEATTLE GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY LIBRARY.

Have you used the 1920 census yet? If not, you have a treat in store. They are now available at the Seattle Branch National Archives, and some are ready to order through your Family History Center. The board decided to have us run off forms for the 1920 census, which are available for 6¢ apiece since they are two-sided. These are very handy when copying the information from the census.

Does it seem to you the bound periodicals are disappearing? Some of them have. In order to make room for more books, we have moved some of the periodicals to storage at the Timberland Montesano library. If you wish to see any of them, request at the reference desk and they will come to you here, for library use only, in a few days. We will soon have a computer printout of which ones were stores, but meanwhile, I have a list you can look at. The ones sent to storage were family surname periodicals, short run for specific counties, and older ones. Let us know how you feel about this as a solution to the lack of space, and if there are any problems.

USEFUL BOOKS NOT IN THE GENEALOGY SECTION

MYSTERY. Landrum, Graham, THE FAMOUS DAR MURDER MYSTERY, St. Martin's Press, 1992. If you like a mystery, and what genealogist doesn't, you will enjoy this book. It makes gentle fun of the DAR ladies and genealogists while giving some good background info on that organization, and methods of research to solve a murder. The author is the husband of a former state officer in the Virginia DAR, and the book is recommended as good reading by the present President General NSDAR, Mrs. Eldred Yochim. It is housed in the mystery section under LANDRUM.

So, what did happen to the Mayflower? A bill of sale dated 1624 verifies the sale of the Mayflower for salvage to a Buckinghamshire, England farmer, Wm. Russell.
