OGS Program for March from Peggy Cooley

Spring is coming-my crocuses have bloomed! This month, Judy Artley will discuss, in depth, the resources available at genealogy.com.

Our 2017 Annual Seminar is on April 8 with regional speakers presenting on courthouse records, timelines, health geograms and women's birth names. Registration forms are in the newsletter or at our website (deadline for early bird pricing is March 25).

In May, Delores Nelson will help us start our memoir and in June, Jerri McCoy will show us why we should review our research for clues we overlooked.

Happy Spring!

From Diana's Table: Next month on April 8, is the OGS 2017 Annual Seminar.

Traditionally, attending OGS members also contribute snacks for our refreshment table. Food items (cookies, crackers, fruit, veggies, etc.) which don't require utensils would be very much appreciated. We want to keep our seminar crowd happy while we're learning! Thank you!

President's Message

OGS members are invited to a special tour of the historic Schmidt House that will include genealogical resources available in their collections. The tour is Saturday, March 18 from 9:30 am to 12:00 pm. Each individual must sign up due to space limitations. We have five spaces left. If you are interested in attending, please send an email to nancy.cordell@gmail.com with "Schmidt House" in the subject line. Please let me know the number of individuals. If there are more than five more people interested, or if you are interested but can't make that date, we can set up another tour.

We look forward to seeing all of you at our Spring Seminar-Taking New Paths in Your Genealogical Trek on Saturday, April 8. The registration form is attached to this newsletter.

Special Event: On March 10, OGS is sponsoring a workshop, Writing Your Family Stories: Yes You Can! at the Olympia Library from 12-3 p.m. Jill Morelli, a Certified Genealogist, will host this workshop on exploring the variety of ways to write and present your family history. Exercises will get the creative writing juices flowing, and Jill will also present methods of publishing your work, and how to make it look professional. Registration is required and walk-ins will not be accepted. Register online, in person, or by phone at 360-352-0595. <http://events.trlib.org/evanced/lib/eventsignup.asp?ID=66940>
